

March 11. Friday, dew fine, threatening 'am stiff SW. Trade & dull, to Cuddon's in the evening. Some splendid cheeses in.

March 12. Saturday, dew fine, R. E. Trade v'g dull a.m. Bish 'm. To Cuddon's in the evening.

March 13. Thursday, dew fine, by R. E. at Ch mornings & evening, to Autobokes P.m. to sea. To Cuddon's in the evening, out into the church after service to hear their practice Jacksons & deans. How it reminded me of "old times" by gone.

March 14. Monday, dew fine, by all quarters a.m. settled R. E. Trade fair unpacking crockery P.m. to Brown before Breakfast & in the evening. He gave me a cheque for 20 pounds sterling a.m. Ah! this has taught me a lesson I shall never forget. Wrote a letter & posted it to Mother.

March 15. Tuesday, dew fine, R. E. Trade fair, unpacking Crockery. To Cuddon's in the evening.

March 16. Wednesday, dew fine, v'g hot, R. E. v'g the P.m. Trade Fair. Received a letter from H. B. Greenup sent him an answer & a parcel. To Broggi's & to Cuddon's in the evening.

March 17. Thursday, dew fine, by R. E. Trade Fair. Up down & to Cuddon's in the evening. Received a letter from Sir

All well & doing well. Ah! I have enough to make me thoughtful & cautious, experience dearly bought by myself & more especially this makes me what I am. Busy putting things to rights

March 18. Friday, dew fine, R. E. At 9 A.M. Trade dull down to Cuddon's in the evening, bad cold.

March 19. Saturday, dew fine, by R. E. a.m. At 9 A.M. Trade bish, round the town in the evening with D. Packard.

March 20. Sunday, dew fine, R. E. v'g the dust intolerable P.m. at church morning & evening, for a walk down the river P.m. with Mr. & Mrs. Cuddon & Miss Boggs, two children stopped at 15 to sea round the town & to 15 Packards after Ch. in the evening

March 21. Monday, dew fine, R. E. by a.m. At 9 A.M. received a letter from home, cousin Esther Stamford is no more, news dull, but news from Europe speak of a pending war with most of the great powers. News from Rome not v'g satisfactory, let hope it is all for the best. There is one above controlling all the events of our lives, nothing happens by chance. Trade Fair. For walk round the town in the evening, past the new Wesleyan Chapel Durham St. It is rearing itself stately, above the surrounding buildings. In will make, the Government Buildings look poor alongside it.

March 22. Tuesday, dew. R. E. a.m. came on a perfect Hurricane from S.W. 10 m. The dust so thick that it was impossible