REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

Births.

By an Act passed in 1874, it is enacted that parents must register every birth, within 42 days of the date thereof, at the Registrar's Office for the District in which they reside. In default, the Registrar is empowered to compel their attendance at his Office, and to charge extra fees.

Deaths.

Deaths must be registered within five days, unless a notice, with medical certificate, has been sent to the Registrar. The nearest relatives of the deceased, present at death, are liable to penalty for neglect of this regulation.

MARRIAGE LICENCES.

Marriage Licences may be procured in London at the Faculty Office, at the Vicar-General's Office, and at the Bishop of London's Registry in Doctors' Commons, between 10 and 4, by one of the contracting parties. In the country, at the Bishop's Registrar's Offices, but these only allow the parties to be married in the diocese in which they are issued; those procured at the Faculty Office or at the Vicar-General's Office can be made out for any part of the country. No instructions can be received except from one of the parties. Affidavits are prepared from the personal instructions of one of the parties about to be married, and the licence is delivered to the party upon payment of fees amounting to thirty shillings, which, with the cost of stamps, makes the entire cost £2 2s. 6d. In order to avoid fraud, it is enacted that "before any licence be granted, one of the parties shall make a declaration, on oath, that there is no legal impediment to the intended marriage, and also that one of such parties hath had his or her usual place of abode, for the space of 15 days immediately preceding the issuing of the licence, within the boundary assigned to the parish church, or the district parish in the church of which the marriage is to be solemnized."

MEMORANDA.

S. I. Penmutaka. Plymouth
 Jan. 17th 1885—

Left here about 1 p.m. My berth instead of being occupied by three more, had only one! a man named George Bond, rather an old fashioned looking chap. He was very sick & had all the afternoon, in fact a great many were, my berth among the number. I was not so very bad, not so bad as a great many more, went to bed about 4 p.m. Did ^{not} turn out for tea, those that did were few, two men conducted a short service before we set sail. I was very glad to be able to sing. We sang, "Rock of Ages" & "Jesus' Love of my soul"

Sunday 18th

Got up at 7.15. a.m.

MEMORANDA.

Did not feel very good, but cold was better, head ached & does now at 10.30. a.m. am expecting to go to Divine Service. 10. p.m. Did not have any service to day. Felt a great deal better after dinner. Walked the deck in the afternoon, read Wordsworth Poems a bit, had a talk to Mrs. & Miss Morrison, who I came across in the Tub with Glasgow them at Feederlych St. Station. Was talking to them to night after tea, & heard some singing, some chaps were talking to get Rev. brother Row, helped them, then started some Hymns, lot of people joined & we sang of Both Church hymns & Moody & Sankey. (Cessel rolls a good bit now) There were more people on deck this afternoon than has been before, sitting in chairs, some talking & some reading, & some doing nothing at all, hardly recovered from their sickness. My Scotch neighbours have not been sick at all, neither have the three gentlemen which we have with us, It is getting much warmer, We are supposed to be going along at a good pace. Water comes in cleaner today. Had a bit of a pull at the ropes to night, but it did not last long enough.

 My cold is much better to day, my head does not ache to night.
 A young man beside me reading a book of prayers, doubtless given him by his mother.
 Opened a tin of condensed milk to day, also pickled cabbage which was very acceptable indeed. Our beds are something like feeding wild animals. Every man helps himself, or else the fully short, that is the case at the present anyway. At the same time we are very sociable.

 The "Bar" was opened to day.
 Several of our mess-mates, bought some beer. Have been talking about having some singing with my medical friends to-morrow, but I fancy we shall know too much for each other. Strange thing to me that they should brought any music with them.
 The Doctor has just come into our quarters & looked into the steward's wash house & I don't think it was any too clean for him. Borrowed a concertina from one of my mates & had a few tunes this morning. Sent Miss Inoignior
 "The Old Curiosity Shop" this afternoon, but another young man on Friday last. Perceval Heere" saw the Irishman (as I call him) reading some Hymns this afternoon, from a Hymn book with the music in, tried to sing one or two, but couldnt get on. The Danish Steward is going to share our cabin, at least it appears so, for he has put his bed there. My friend the Scotchman has written a lot more than I have. When I first went out this morning the clouds appeared, close to us, just on the water they seemed to be. We have seen several vessels passing us homeward bound to day.

George, that is sharing my cabin, is not better to night but went to bed early.
Half of us are gone to bed now.
Am beginning to get used to the roll of the vessel now.

Courier Collac said they should sing "Eternal Father" this afternoon I wonder whether they did? cant say I feel dull at present.
Have had rather an argument with a Birmingham man to day, who is a Tory & believes in Protection. He is a printer or something of that sort.
I think from I can see that I shall stand as good a chance as any of my fellow passengers. We have been passing through the dreaded Bay of Biscay to day, & it was very calm, hardly any sea running. We are all speculating as to our far we are got, how fast we are going, how long it will take us to reach the Isle of Teneriffe &c.
I think I shall go to turn in now & hope I shall have a good night, but I think I am getting used to it now.

Monday 19th

Woke up feeling very queer, had a wash. The ship was rocking very much, looked round & could see that a great many more were looking the same as myself. Had a bit of Breakfast, went into the cabin & vomitted it all back, lay down & stopt there till eleven o'clock the next day. It was very rough all day & nearly every one were in bed & sick. Feeling very unwell at night & a man to comfort me said he thought the vessel was going to sink. He also wanted me to get up & help sing some Hymns but I could not see it. George Bond my companion was worse than myself.

Tuesday 20th

My friend Mr Adams brought me some bread, butter & coffee. eat as much as I could & got up about eleven, found a great many recovering like myself. Everyone appeared to be on deck in the afternoon, had a talk to the female portion of the passengers, am getting on very well with them. Had a bit of dinner, also some tea. Stopt on deck till about 8.30. We had a good bit of singing at night, close to the second class officers room, till at last we were asked to stop, because some of the second class ladies were in there & very ill, & they looked so too. Had a long talk in the afternoon to a fellow who says he is a teacher with a Canadian Certificate. He looks more like a snob, I think he has too much brag about him. Last night the vessel rocked a great deal, my nervous friend was up two or three times in the night on deck to see whether the vessel was going to sink or not, I am writing this on deck with a silver pocket case given by Eliza Mayo, my father's cousin.

We have some queer fish on board quite a miscellaneous lot, but we are very jolly together, I am not quite got over my sickness at present but hope soon to be. It is getting very warm. A young man among us seems to think that a mechanic is an engineer only, I venture to differ from him.

Wednesday 21st

Was better in the morning, but eat rather too heartily at dinner consequently I suffered from indigestion in the afternoon.
Took some pills at night.

Thursday 22nd

Got up feeling very much better, we were in sight of the Isle of Seneryffe. Had breakfast then finished letters to Emma & cousin Edla, (which by the bye I had written the night before) we reached land about 8.30 a.m. Very soon boats came round the ship & men & boys jumped upon deck, with all kinds of fruit for sale, it was decidedly the best part of the voyage hitherto. Oranges 60 for 1/- Bananas 25 for 1/- Cigars 25 for 1/- Pine apple 3d ea. As we did not understand their language which was Spanish, it sounded quite a jumble, they were so anxious to sell, everything was a shilling, if they could get it. I bought one shillingworth of Oranges, some figs & some walnuts. Most of us bought Straw Hats at 6d each. About 10.30 Messrs Adams, Fraser & myself went on shore, for 1/- ea. We soon fell in with a lot more fellow passengers. We strolled about, & no matter where we went, everyone seemed to be on the beg, especially children. Little children gubbing about, with nothing but spits on. Saw one little girl in the market about three yrs. of age in a perfectly nude state. At last we fell in with Mr. Lyons an old colonist, who with several others had engaged a guide. We saw the few Roman Catholic Churches, which were very good. Some of the carving was splendid but the gilt work was felt & not gold, it began to look shabby. There were three or four altars (perhaps more) in each Church all of them had a cross with our Saviour hanging on. Every one seemed free to go about the Church where they pleased, but there were sure to be someone on the beg when we went out. There did not appear to be any — where in any room for the people to sit down. The floor was squares of Brick. In one Church they were two Organs & in the other only one.

The two places where Churches were the only places worth seeing i.e. the only places of magnificence. There were some gardens (public) with a basin of water in the middle. I close to the Barracks. We went into some gardens, where there were young onions, full grown cabbages. In fact just like an English summer. We plucked some wild kind of geese. We went into the market, which was in one quarter all fruit & vegetables. The women appeared to be doing all the work, attended the stalls &c. In another quarter of the market, was dripping corn, & miscellaneous articles.

It was in the market where we saw the naked little girl.

As we wanted some dinner, our guide took us to a place, where we had plenty of fish, bread, some wine (not very good, like claret) we thought we had done, but after that came a lot of eggs, fried in oil, some of us had two some three. I was quite full in fact, every one was, & then beef steak & coffee was announced, so we had got to pay for it we had it in (but not the coffee) & got rid of it somehow, nobody just tasted it. We were sure it they charged 2.6 ea, we gave them £14 so let Mr Lyons little girl run in, we then examined the shop belonging the establishment, made ourselves quite at home, helped ourselves to Walnuts & Biscuits (Peak & Loaves). As there happened to be a empty shop opposite I went in, the hammer & anvil was like ours, but the bellows appeared to be in two parts & so the under man pushed them with his hands hard work I should think.

We went into a Theatre. & to hear the Orchestra which were having a Rehearsal. I thought it was splendid, the expression beautiful. The building from the stage was in a semi-circle lay shape, there were the pit & the galleries in three tiers.
They too they demanded 3d. ea. of us, but they did not get it.
All the ships were without windows, all the counter jumpers appeared to be smoking. The streets were pitched & there was a narrow pavement, most of the streets had cows growing in the middle of them. Mules, donkeys & bullocks seemed to be the beasts of burden. They drove the mules & the about. They were shod with tips, the nails were not driven very high. The men did not seem to do much, but the women seemed to be the hardest worked, carrying everything on their heads.

They were not very good looking to be sure, we saw a lot of nice girls at work in a tailors shop. The lower class of men were getting but thin trousers & shirts, but the nobles were quite dandies. All of them smoked. We posted our letters in the town which was or is called Santa Portos. There was an English Hotel, there, also an English Photographer. We took in here 300 tops of Goul. The climate seemed delightful. I eat rather too many oranges although I was careful, but my stomach was not quite strong enough. The distance from Teneriffe to Plymouth is 1430 miles. At night we had a bit of dancing, I believe I was one of the first two to start, I was also the first to dance with a woman. It made me rather giddy.

The fiddle this morning I got on very well, I played some Scotch Airs. Lay about all the afternoon & did nothing. After tea we tried over some glasses but as I expected we could not get on at all, we did not make a very melodious sound & to better it, the sailors looked down through the ventilators & picked up as much row as possible.
 Since then I have had about an hour fiddling to myself & enjoyed it immensely. Mr Purdie came down & expected some of the Scotch songs over. From twelve o'clock yesterday, till the same time to day we sailed 318 miles.
 Temperature at tea time to night was 71 deg. in the shade, at seaone time it was 66 deg.
 All the time I was playing tonight some of the folks on top were throwing down orange peel classon that little things

We only saw one vessel for two or three days & that was to-day, she was a two-masted drading steamer.

Went on deck after I had done fiddling, played Concertina for dancing, had two or three dances myself. It was the finest night we have had, warm & the moon shining beautifully. Through some mistake the Electric light was put out at ten o'clock.
Got meal porridge for breakfast, Pork, pea-soup & potatoes for dinner.

Sunday 25th

Got up at 16.30. Feels very well, Got meal & treacle again for breakfast. am on deck writing this & the sailors are jailing among themselves. At 9.30 am we sighted a two-masted steamer apparently bound for the Cape named, the "Cory, Glasgow" we soon passed her. At the same time we saw Cape Verd, which we passed about 10:00 a.m. probably the last land we shall see till we reach Hobart Town. At 10:30, we went to a very lusty service held in the first class saloon. The Captain officiated. We sang "eternal Father" "God moved in a mysterious way" & "How sweet the name of Jesus sounds". The young man that presided at the American Organ was not a very grand player.

The singing was about the poorest I have ever heard in such an assembly. I told the first mate when we came out that "it would be better if someone organized a choir. We had roast mutton & plum pudding for dinner today we have just had an awning put up i.e. immediately after dinner. The Irishman seems the most devout here.

To day we ^{saw} the spotting of a whale for the first time. Lay down in the afternoon for a hour & half. Had some singing at night, was obliged to take the bed, my musical friends, are poor singers, very good voices, but as they are cant (in my opinion) beat myself. They abstain from singing much. Stay'd on deck till 10.30 talking to Mr. Adams who said he had been talking to a young man an engineer from Chubb's church about myself.

This young man came or went to England in the Shaw, Saville & Albion's steamer "Doric" as one of the engineers & is now going back home. I am going to have some talk to him some days he knows some one at C. Boston. The moon to-night at 10.0 was nearly over our heads perpendicularly. We said 316 miles from twelve yesterday till the again time to day.

It ^{was} a beautiful night, & has been a beautiful day.

Monday Jan 26th.

Got up at 6.30 this morning.
Breakfast at 7.45. Out for meal porridge again. Had the port holis open yesterday for the first time. One of the Steward went into Mr. Adams berth or cabin to close the Port Hole & he not knowing him & being half asleep, explained him, much to his astonishment. Saw some flying fish this morning.
Also saw a small kind of Whale or Black fish. Have been reading "Sketches by Boby" Also some Porpoises were seen by us for the first time to day.
Went with Miss Ingerson to try & find the boxes, but did not get them. The weather to day was delightfully fine. The sea was greatly as smooth as a pond.

Mr Adams & I went on the Forecastle for as much as two hours after tea. The night was spent did. Dancing & singing were going on. Am better than I have been since the voyage. Had fearful stuff called Indian Beef for dinner & no soup. Mr. Sergeant (a man I fell in with at Penchurch St.
Station) took me to look round the second class compartments to-day.
Ventilation not so good as the third, but much nicer to be in, not so much rocking in a rough sea.
The twenty four ending at 12.00 we ran 321 miles. Went to bed at eleven o'clock. Had a talk tonight with the engineer from Christchurch. Thinks he has plenty of coal.

Tuesday Jan. 27th

Did not get up till after seven this morning. We had a sharp shower in the night. Have repaired my chair, with the help of Mr Lyon's cabinet, needle & turn.

One of our fellow passengers has been practicing on my violin, but he did not get on very well. Some of the people are washing their clothes this morning & hanging them on the forecabin to dry. Got pork & rice soup for dinner. Spent some time in the afternoon looking after Mrs & Miss Morrison's boxes but did not find them. This was on Monday.

Had an order nailed up in the Steerage mess Room ordering us to be on deck every morning at 10.30 for the Captains inspection. No dancing at night. Did not feel up to much the weather was so warm.

The temperature of our messy room was 82 deg. That of the second class being nearly 90 deg. Took two pills.

Wednesday 28th

Better this morning. Weather very warm. Got meat porridge & eggs for breakfast. Took out awning down about 10 a.m. consequently some men went down stairs, which being contrary to Captains orders, very much upset them. Hope after this that the awning will be put up just thing in the morning. Preserved beef for dinner & lime juice. Act of Parliament put up for our edification this afternoon. Some of them are having a game of "Up of Her" at 6 p.m. Passed the line to day at 12 a.m. Have been airing our beds

The last twenty four we sailed 300 miles. Sea very smooth. Slept or rather went to bed for about two hours this afternoon. Temperature 82 deg. Rather warmer than I like in the day, beautiful at night. Was with Mr. Adams nearly all night.

Thursday 29th

Got up at 6.30. had a good wash. Got milk for breakfast. Took off shirts, drawers & put on clean linen shirt only & feel much cooler. Salt beef for dinner & plum duff. Lay down in afternoon for about two hours. Creaming appeared very long. There was a little hanging after 9 p.m. Did it join in. Mr. Adams has taken a fancy to a young lady in second class with a blue dress with red spots, but he has not spoken to her.

Some of the second class commenced quiet playing on our deck, had a game myself. Should very much like to join the Chori, but I suppose the notice only applied to the 1st & 2nd class passengers. (The notice which is in the 2nd class compartment is asking for Volunteers to form a Chori)

Friday 30th

Got up at 6.30. Stopped down stairs till 10.30. when we are obliged to be on deck. We ought to have an awning over our deck but we are disappointed. Lay down for two hours this afternoon. Had some fearful stuff called tea this afternoon. Sent a petition to the captain about it. Went to Chori practice in the 2nd class Saloon to night at 7 p.m. Tried over

The Canticles & three Hymns.
Don't think very much of their behaviour, rather too starchy.

Saturday 31st

Got up at 6.30. Washed on deck. Got meal for breakfast.
Had a good bit of fiddling after breakfast. Mr. Carter also played. Not quite so cold to day although the sun is very warm.
There is a nice breeze.
Left pork for dinner.
The crew tried the pumps in case of fire. Saw some flying fish to day. Appears to be about as large as pwallops & in fact, looks like them skimming over the top of the water.
Nothing happened of any note nor has not for some days.
Had an argument before dinner about Temperance &c, & also had one on the merits of English workmen as compared with her Colonies.

Had a couple of tarts given to me by the Chap that step above, one, above eleven o'clock at night.
Found out in conversation that a young man from Pinetock, Oxon, is with us named J. Alderton. Had rather a long talk with him.

Sunday Feb. 1st

Got up at seven o'clock.
Got meal porridge for breakfast. Went to church in the 1st class Saloon. The singing was not so bad. Not so warm today. The sun doesn't shine.
The crew dressed up this morning & appeared on Parade.
The Hymns we sang this morning were "O God our Help," "Jesus Love of my soul" & "A Few more years shall toll".

Had the best dinner to day that I have had since the voyage, Roast mutton & plum pudding, also soup. The two young Carters, brothers, at least the youngest of them appears to have more money than sense, it is being bled by some of the females beautifully.
Read tracts in the afternoon, & messed about. Had a long after tea with Mr. Adams & one of the Engineers who is a Scotchman.
We sang a lot of Moody & Lunkin's Hymns in the after noon. but it was very hard work for me as I had to take the lead nearly all the time. We were going to have a serm at night, only the 3rd Officer told us not to as we should disturb their Rest. Was down stairs reading & was called up by some one, it was merely a serm Mr. Curdise, promenading with Miss Bright.
I was then obliged to take

Miss Morrison & Mr. Neap for a walk on deck Mr. Neap left us & so I had Miss Morrison alone, she is a nice gal but I did not care much about it.

Monday 2nd

Rather late getting up.
Lay in my berth after break fast & read "Humble Love" & "How to take care of your Lent to me by Mr. Burnard.
After dinner I learnt how to play up "Gaps" We stoppt anyhow, the vessel did, & as pack the Pistons of the Cylinder, took about half an hour. Went to bed at 9.15.

Tuesday 3rd

Nothing wonderful happened.
Lay down in the afternoon & read "Barnaby Rudge".
Went to a chess & whist practice in the First Class Saloon at 7.30. Played a good game of Whist in the evening.
Good playing for money is on the increase. Rap is the game played most.

Wednesday 4th

Got up at 6.30. Liddled in the morning, read "Barnaby Rudge". Skinned Beef for dinner. Lay down in bed & read after dinner. Aired Bed & Blankets. Saw about 100 Porpoises sporting in the water, very much resembled boys, pre-hunting, one or two in advance & all the rest following. It is a beautiful day. Threatened rough weather all day yesterday, also last night, but for the present it has passed off.

Played seven games of Drafts Mr Adams & myself against Mr. Dudley & Mr. Fraser. They had four games to one three.
We are rather undecided as to whether we shall eat at the Cafe or not.

The Rap players are very excited over their game.
We were six hundred miles off the Cape at 12 o'clock to-day.
Went off to bed at 9.40 p.m.

Thursday 5th

Got up at 7 a.m. Thought it was only 6.30, but now the time changes so much. Finished reading "Barnaby Rudge". Have lent Mr. Fraser "Marion Bay".

Borrowed "Adam Bede" from Mr Adams had a good long read at it in the afternoon till my head was inclined to ache. Am not extraordinary well just now. For the first time could not eat the bread at tea time to night owing to its being hardly done.

In the morning Mr Renshaw the Acrobat fixed a pole & went thru several performances on it. Saw the "Southern Cross" for the first time. The Electric Light went out for more than an hour to night, was rather amusing to see some of the people, standing in the wench supper they had bought from the cook. Saw some stormy Petrels flying about to day.

Mr Pydie seemed very attentive to Miss Bright all night. The Jeweller gave me some pudding when I went to bed.

Friday 6th

Our nights keep getting shorter now, one reason because they alter the chips time at night. Got up about 7 o'clock. Lay down after breakfast & read "Adam Bede" began writing to Sheffield in the hopes of its being posted at the Cape which we are fast approaching. Saw land about 11 a.m. to day the first since we passed Cape Verd. Kept in sight of land all day. Signalled about 4 p.m. & also at 6 p.m. but don't think it was responded to. We saw the Table Mountain among a range of them, they looked very grand. Don't think we went any nearer than about four miles to the shore. We saw the houses at Cape Town but not very distinctly. There were several sharks around the Cape, also got lot of Sea-Gulls & Stormy Petrels. Saw two fishing boats out far off the Cape. The scenery as we saw it was very magnificent. The Table mountain was nearly level on the top hence its name. It was nice to see the clouds rolling along below the tops of the mountains. Among the first stars to be seen, was the Southern Cross. We went to Chori practice but owing to the captain being on deck, all the afternoon he had it had his afternoon meal & as we were hindered about a quarter of an hour. While we were waiting in the 2nd class saloon, Mr. H.

Adley the organist, sang the Woman's Wedding, he has (in my opinion) got a good voice.
As he took the sails up in the morning. Played four games of Whist at night, had two each.

Saturday 7th

Very rough in the afternoon consequently myself (with several more) was a little sick.

Sunday 8th

Rather rough in the morning but the sick people got better.
Did not go to Church as I was not quite well. There was not any singing on deck, or anywhere else all day. Had a bit of mutton given me at night which was very acceptable.

Monday 9th

Got up at seven o'clock.
Had a bit of mutton for breakfast. Rice & treacle for dinner. Beautiful day.
More sails set than we have had before. Have seen several large birds flying about called Have also seen a lot of small white birds flying about.

Mr. Frazer went to the Purser about losing his Chiqui.
Had two games of Whist.
Went to bed after taking two pills at 9.30.

Tuesday 10th

Didn't get up till 7.30.
Felt better after the pills. Cat meal porridge for breakfast.
At eleven o'clock we descried a sail, but as seen once since the second Sunday we were on board. As it was a sailing ship she didn't keep the same course as ourselves & so we soon lost sight of her. Mr. Renshaw again fixed his Gymnastic Bar. The weather is got very cold. Thermometer stand a little over 60 deg.

Wednesday 11th
Still keeps very cold, & in fact gets colder. There are several birds flying about Albatross Gulls, Hawks, Cape Pigeons &c.
Nap. playing gets stronger.
Are beginning to live better.
I am better than I have been all the voyage. Had a long talk at night with Mr. Lucas, the engineer from Christchurch.

Thursday 12th

Got up at seven o'clock.
It was colder than ever, the reason because we keep going farther south. There is a lot of speculation as to when we shall reach Hobart Town.
Mr. Frazer & I made a draught Board this morning out of some brown paper for the Board, some cloth & potatoes for the men.

Mr. Purdee appears to be champion at present, he has already played three men besides myself & beat them.
At present I stand best with him, two games to his three.
This is the most uncomfortable day we have had the vessel rolls a good deal & it is a regular Scotch mist.

We've been reading about Chinese Gordon. Ther. Cody.
Mr. Fouser's chair is not found at present. Our cabins have always been wet & to day they were got unbearable, so the carpenter came & examined the place & found a hole in a lead ^{plate} that I think comes from the closets. They (~~with~~ rather he) drove a nail in & tied it up with some white lead or putty.

Friday 13th

Lay in bed till 7.30.

Stayed down stairs nearly all the morning. Lay in my berth & read. Last night, Lehaufield (that sleeps in our cabin), one of the stewards was found in bed asleep when he ought to have been on the watch.
We got locked up together a bit which he deserves. I also had to go before the Captain this morning. Ther. 5 beds. Now at 4.30 P.M. Borrowed & have been reading a novel, called Mothers by Coulter, rather frivolous. Saw a lot of surprises to day.

Saturday 14th

It is Valentines day & I had almost forgotten it. The coldest day we have had, not a bit of sunshine all day. Heard to day that some of the married women had had their pockets picked.

The married people's steward has also told about some of the people getting meat from the cook.

Some of the men were locked in our storage washhouse last night as they were cooking & wouldn't turn out. Some of them to-night have had too much to drink, except we shall soon have an eruption among some of them. I was the only one that went to lounge & dance last night. According to the account of yesterday's run, it is here 40 miles to a dip, as we ran 7 deg. due east & it was 282 miles. We ran with two boilers instead of three for a day or two, had the other going yesterday.

Got up at 7:30. We have long been wanting something to relieve the monotony & so last night we had it. Some of the second class passengers got bottles of aperitifs for the third class ones, consequently about ten o'clock, I heard a lot of champing & gawwaring from Staffordshere & laughter from some of the others. They were several of them drunk off the worse for drink. I did not get to sleep till nearly twelve o'clock. At that time they were as bad as when they began. I think they are got quicker towards one o'clock.
A notice came down to say that we are to be in bed by 10 p.m. for the future. Several of them didn't get up for breakfast this morning. Went to Church in the 1st Saloon this morning, it has been very rough all day. The Ship keeps rolling from side to side, & it rains, in fact it is the most miserable day we have had any, how the worst Sunday. Lay in my berth all the afternoon. Finished reading "The Last Night" by Robert Lynd, the 25th.

It was undecided till this afternoon whether we should have coal enough to carry us on or call at Western Australia, now we are going straight on.

I was a very wild this morning but am better now, 8 p.m.

The "Ancient Mariner" has been torturing us with his instrument this afternoon.

The second class passengers were worse than ours last night, they got boring.

This has been one of the most miserable days we have had, it has wet for three consecutive days, a nasty, drizzling rain. I was writing in my cabin for some time in the morning to Sheffield. Played twelve games of Whist in the afternoon, Mr. Adam & I won eight, against Messrs Purdie & Pease. Being a nasty, drizzly dark night, the electric light wouldn't act, as we were in some darkness. Went to bed about 9.30. As I was going I saw Chatfield taking full kit out from our cabin, then I thought they steward have got to sleep by themselves, because they neglected their duties by talking to some of the women.

Tuesday 17th

This is Throve Tuesday, but we did not have any pancakes. The engine was still from 1 a.m. to 6 a.m. consequently we did not go but 246 miles. The rain cleared up this morning, but it is rather cold now. The ship rolls a good bit. Have been writing to Sheffield again this morning. Heard that there is going to be an Entertainment in the 2nd Class by-morrow night for the 1st class & themselves. Miss Morrison, Miss Bright & some of the other women have been ill this unsettled weather. Played 8 games of Whist four each, were playing to congratulate game when we were stopped. Went to bed about 10.30 & did not go to sleep for more than two hours, no electric light.

Wednesday 18th
Got up at 7.20, & by the time I had washed &c. it was breakfast time. Continued letter to Sheffield till 10.30 went on deck till dinner time was obliged to undergo the infliction of hearing Mr. Burwood recite a piece, beginning with "They're going to hang my Mother." Thinks Mr. Alderton has some peculiar views upon politics & religion. After dinner I began writing writing to Ella. Then lay down till tea time. After that read some pieces from "Bell's Standard of Elocution" went on deck found it rather cold & so came down stairs & am writing this; about 6.30. Was sorry to hear that Miss Morrison had got a Quinsy in her throat. Had about two hours talk with Mr. J. Lucas invited me to his home when I get to Christchurch

Thursday 19th

The sea was rather rough to day. We had more rolling about than ever we had before, it was quite amusing to hear the tin ware was being about. The sea looked very wild too & it often rained, worth in the morning, continued letter to Ella. The wind was favorable being nearly aft all the time.

Lag down in the afternoon, read all times Bell's Standard Locationist. Went to bed just before ten o'clock. Concert in the 2nd class Saloon.

Rather late getting up, washed just in time for breakfast. Rice for breakfast instead of oat meal. Continued letter to Ella in the morning. Borrowed from Mr. Atkinson "Of the world's mercy" & read it all through in the afternoon. John Practice to night but I am not gone, as I thought they might have invited us to the concert. As I did not go. Messrs. Gorton & Atkinson did not go. The ship has rolled a good bit to day, but we are not used to it. The sea looks quite nice again to day with what they call a swell on. If it was going against us, instead of with us it would be very uncomfortable, as we should be nearly swilled out, she would ship so much water. Am writing this by lantern light as the Electric light won't act, it is very uncomfortable rolling about so much. Had a good fiddle for an hour after dinner & enjoyed it. Played at Whist. Mr. Bedams & I, won three games to two. Went to bed just before 10. p.m.

Saturday 20th

It has been stormy again today, mingled with sunshin.
Began reading "Marion Fay" Played Whist at night.

Had a bit of supper, went for a walk on deck, heard music so went to the 2nd Saloon stairs had it been there long, before I was told by a flunkie that that was not my place, so I quietly retired.

Sunday 21nd

Hope this will be the last Sunday on board, but am afraid not. Have cleaned my boots, shaved & got ready for Church feels quite smart for once.
It is a nice morning.

Went to the Service, was the only one of the 3rd Class passengers that sat in the place reserved for the Chori. We sang "Have mercy Lord on me", "For ever with the Lord", and "Christian dost thou see them".

Did not do much in the afternoon but read a little & lay down. After tea I had nearly two hours fiddling, Rhythm tunes that I thought people knew.

One of the boys here got very drunk much to his father's discredit & was very delicious. Went to bed about 9.45. p.m.

Monday 23rd

This is the finest morning we have had for more than a fortnight our skin beautifully. It is warm. Letter writing in the morning, & fore part of afternoon, read few Zealand papers & lay down till tea-time. Had a bit of fiddling after tea, walked on deck, played at Whist.

Tuesday 24th

Got up when seven bells rang. It has been a very uneventful day, but a beautiful breeze got under the ship along. We sailed 3 1/4 miles. Thought it would have been more. Had some bread, butter & pea soup for dinner. Cold salt fish for tea. Did not feel very well when I went to bed which was at 9 p.m.

Wednesday 25th

Got up just before 7.30 & felt rather better than last night. The water is very calm to day. The wind is more to the head of the vessel, so nearly all the sails are down. Roast mutton for dinner to day. Washed two shirts this morning. All anxiously waiting for to-morrow, to go ashore.

Thursday 26th

Land appeared in sight about 4.30 this morning. All the way up the Bay, as it were. The land either side looked quite picturesque. For some miles before we got to Hobart we could see Farms dotted all along the shore. The weather was delightful & everyone was in good spirits, anticipating an afternoon on shore. We had a good dinner of roast mutton & plum pudding.

We arrived at Hobart about 12.30. Finished letters & soon started for the shore. We paid 1/4 £ each if we had it been so impatiently we might have had a return ticket on the steamer for Bd. Anyhow we came back for Bd. Messrs. Underdon. I raised myself, strolled about the Town, then we went on a kind of common, or government grounds & I left them to watch some cricket. Went along from there to

The Town, past the Railway Station & fell in with Mrs Meap & Miss Morrison, went to a Restaurant & agreed to have Ham & Eggs for Tea. Afterwards fell in with some more & we went & all had tea together for 1/6 ea. Then we left.

The women & had a drop of Whiskey strolled about, fell in with them again, all of us went to an Hotel & finally went on Board together for 1/6 per pound.

At night a great many were the worse for drink & could hardly help keeping from fighting, going to the show, I did not go to bed till 1.30 the next morning. Mr Fran got quite fresh, also Mr Purdee I spent 10/6. The first news we heard when the boat came across from Hobart was that Rharboun was taken & General Gordon killed Bought Samaritan news wherever was an account of the Rimutaka, & it was very well puffed up.

Friday Feb. 27th

Cousin Ella's examination, hope she will be successful.
The breakfast tables were very thinly attended, some of the passengers were hardly sober & the majority of them had bad heads. The stumpy man promised to give Uncle a trimming as soon as he was on his legs, I need hardly mention that stumpy was hardly sober. However one of the sailors came down, in an excited & drunken state & after a bit of sparring, stumpy can't take it & floored him.
It took about six men to take the sailor up stairs. The short man had cut his head in the fall & it bled profusely, & that covered him. There were several bottles of beer drunk but it passed off quiet. A young fellow he occupied the bunk vacated by Geo. Bond, who came on board drunk. He is a native of Australia, & has been at Tasmania for some time.

Saturday 28th

Breakfast tables almost deserted again, & some of them don't want much dinner consequently there is plenty of good food to spare. We have nothing but fresh meat now, which suits us better.

A collection was raised at tea time for the Steward, over 5/- was raised for him.

Read "Percival Keene" in the afternoon. Played Whist at night.

Sunday March 1st

Got up at seven bells. Mr. Purdie for the second time could not turn up to breakfast. He had had too much to drink on Friday. I am glad to say he was sick. Went to Church in the morning, congregation scanty. singing went very well.
