

28 Sun 59—306
2 in Lent

1/5/15. I am not much in the mood to write about

1 Mon 60—305
St. David

Cairo sights
as we are on the transport at Alexandria ready to sail but I will

2 Tu 61—304

have to write down
the events up till the present or I will forget since the last entry

3 Wed 62—303

have done nothing much. We have been drilling away in the sun, and sweating

4 Th 63—302

It was so hot that the Doc issued a warning that even in the uniforms had to

5 Fri 64—301

keep their hats on Last Sunday we went to Sakhaga Pyramids
and Tombs. We went

6 Sat 65—300

out to Giza and then by camel about ten or twelve miles down the edge of the desert. I did not mind the camel

but the other officers gave it up and they went with the guide who was riding a donkey.
The last mile or so was through the sand hills of the desert proper and as it was blowing hard the sand and little pebbles came on to our helmets like hail.
We had lunch at
"Maretta's" house and after that visited the Temple or Tomb of the some ancient Egyptian high priest. The interior was wonderful being covered with coloured figures of men, animals birds etc. The colours were red and blue
but despite the fact that they were about 4000 years old they seemed as well preserved
