

I see hurried out I wish too were quite ashamed of being so late but I thought I ought to be here I should not have on one clock I besides it was the first morning I felt rested since I came We hurried through breakfast I had the left asked if he had disturbed much in the night that he had not been in bed told him he might judge how much when I had heard no noise - All have gone on deck so I am going also we expect to be at Portland at 12 o'clock I got on deck I returned reading in my cabin The ladies got back on by one I have appeared at breakfast as both yet one did The wind has changed at least has gone down they much I see are going slowly - I am writing to Misses Kipp and soon The weather has become very cold to night the wind an all blowing about some are taking drafts George at back of clouds I had three others are playing on deck I got back from Mr Oliver The Mrs Mores of Misses Sumner a superior party who did young but was ripe for punch lashed on deck with a glass for a little while have attended 17th obliged to take an additional blanket last night it was so cold I slept pretty well but I am very dull & stupid I really have no spirits for any thing Some of the ladies are still on bed I Miss Stile people went on deck but saw no land we were on the coast of Cornwall had a good sail so far the wind is faint but not much of it had some Father's picture which is really beautiful & after luncheon the gentlemen took a bottle with a loose cork & going a few steps from it tried to phillup the cork from the bottle in passing - They failed generally George of ten succeeded The ladies then tried Miss succeeded & all the 3 Why hold in much to the shaper of the gentleman!! They have got cards drafted to duels all now The day is a very delicious had a chat with Miss Lady who was in bed The Cubans are all gone I am I hope begun John Phillips about 10 not read much for I do not like to go on in the night deck and the afternoon the 3 ladies are all on deck to come far forward now the 2 Latin papers has been away my had some money on the bridge to money they could not I another up follows some dinner first drink of rum on one way to the society which I expect to be at the Bay of Biscay to morrow
