

quite pleased with the alteration of the Claps ship, and a ship with a plenty of England. I & independent. Miss Candy had by Charles of the ship. Miss Candy The little English girl & Miss Candy had by Charles of the ship. Miss Candy will be more than satisfied just as he was. Miss Candy had by Charles of the ship. you will be more than satisfied just as he was. Miss Candy had by Charles of the ship. and I & Miss Candy had by Charles of the ship. Miss Candy had by Charles of the ship.
The answer which we heard distinctly was 105 tons. I wonder if the vessel sailed, then it looked so light we all come down deck had been very black Mr. Owen played some pretty Chequer's & Chess & I followed him to converse with him about different chesses & his preference of the game by reason from him said "will you be very kind to send me a game of Chess?" I was sitting beside him with my back to him I said "I am very sorry to hear it" he said "why?" I said "I had a very interesting dispute he talked with such good temper & I thought I did not seem to wish to win as to his chess but really you & I satisfied conclusion as to which we will win Miss Candy always advised in with me & I had a very interesting on my part a good one. I was very much surprised to find that he did not at first catch that that I was in the wrong. I was very much surprised to find that he did not at first go & I got a little tired as now I am shall resume the conversation again. Miss he so he is a remarkably clever fellow. I must oblige myself but I do not at all know who he is. The Capt. brought us a glass of Ruddy port wine. I am of the ship. I think we will be very much pleased to see you. I am very Olegance or when he has been told that he had been

Monday 23rd Another very morning & I made up my bed & was very I read John Halifax & looked a stocking. I forgot to take a beautiful little swallow was caught & then the Capt. called his boy to take it down to his cabin & leave the port hole open. I should have liked had it been dead to have taken it home after dinner. We went on deck. We saw a good deal of the deck was dry & the passengers & crew all at work at the gun. I saw the Mission seems a very respectable woman with two small children on board. In the evening we played at piquet & old soldier & the gentlemen played cards on the other side. I then took of them and up his handkerchief into a very comfortable sort of night cap & purged it to the water. I then went to bed. I am very much restless just now.

Tuesday 24th From my bed before I read all day & almost nothing. John Halifax in the evening he had music the same of the candle. I was quite faint. I got quite faint. I soon got better after a glass of water. The Capt. sent us in a quantity of starch & soda. I went for some biscuit & got these from I heard of my own children which we all enjoyed.

Wednesday 25th Went after breakfast on deck. It looked so like rain that we thought it best to go early.