

Circle 3rd voyage. Read a day, a ship was recalled to day the Largely from Liverpool to Bombay out 2 1/2 days. A great party when they the most to be have had. The Purser slept in like a cat & some on deck as the wife of Mr. Dean. On that was not the thing he intended to be taken for one of the lowest Cabin Passengers & walk with Mr. Dean on the Deck of the deck where the 1st class passengers walk & he meant to catch this on for three nights so that he might be found fault with by the Capt as such doings are against all rules. Mr. Dean called that it was Mr. Dean's & the fair was over but not before the Capt took his cabin & walk up & down with him. Capt. White is seen around on board on hand at any army or naval choice. The world is at every day in a great comfort. He has had the same done for the sake of reason. With the cabin he felt help on the table. Hatch a few Capt. White's hair with about the little at the deck down to walk at a paper to the morning & there was dark a case of laughing the boy was laughing all the time at what. He the Capt. did not hide go & took clothes face just in the glass & three to his basin & wash his face poor Willie. He did know whether to laugh or cry — Saturday 4th August. Got under changes of time & day for tomorrow A whale was seen to be about 20 feet long on the ship. The skin was almost blackish at the top & the water was clear. He had a school of young fish in his mouth. He had a jibbering thing on deck & the young people all joined in a chorus. We sat up deck & saw the white way & beheld full stars but there was no moonlight. We came down at 9 & Miss Candy & I played draught while Miss Candy was gone. Monday Sunday 5th August. This morning I after breakfast went near the main deck where all the ships correspond papers were assembled. They read prayers & Mr. Dean the minister for the day I went to my cabin & had some quiet reading. There I also attended We had one chapel. All my girls attended. They were much attend two of them sat at my feet. Some of the second class passengers walked up & down & talk all very much, but I did not take the least notice but shall ask the Capt of his own accord as it were to be best known for as home being a paper. A good service came to night to the different classes I think the girls like it. Whether Miss Candy
