

of this custom is that the Indians had a months pay ad vanced to them in England so that they do not to be working for nothing ^{the Indians} they begin working for wages & count some day as to month ^{the Indians} this was pay for to they did all quite hearty the Capt says they do this such voyage the main that contain to come down in barrels so that anybody could go on deck Mr Swift had some of Shakespeares Poems & his book of books & several other things of his things we must have come in for the end of a heated pond it was so heavy

Monday 14 Miss Candy is poorly to day & did not get up We had few at table & were away from it. A young asked me to get & speak to a poor woman who has been very ill on board but he would not let me go to her me go to day it is so unpleasant today - I have been a letter for the gentlemen for getting shells all day to the evening I went on deck for an hour it was very freshing & the setting sun looked beautiful there a shoal of flying fish Mr Owen has been complaining & looks very ill about his voice

Wednesday 15 Gave my little spoon & finished my letter & put the little birds in a cage by the window. We have the little birds George included the cage for me & the young birds look so full. The old ones free from the anxiety of providing the little birds & the other ones came to look at the young birds quite delighted with them the Thursday 15 The signal holes so much that many of the cabin have kept their beds in keep bed to be it is two gentlemen are ill Mr O'Connell & Mr Beine I worked all day at the net & Mr Webb made me a nice little needle of