

Wednesday 19
I am Maggie Sutherland's birthday. How much of your year came to remembrance this day. Some of the ladies got several left so dunk. We had hair & snow. I only brought two large towels. I think Saloon I gave them to the young ladies to put on their hands taking them they were good for a while. I had called us to the kitchen window to of a glorious match. The ship was so low. I thought the waves were so high that I'm sure to land there that I was almost thrown overboard with the sea. I to the evening we were to have a quite small dinner but the Capt. could not to a combination of inflammation in the eye & I got off the gentlemen were disappointed as Mr. Wrighton intended going a sail. The gentleman in his cabin got Mr. Brown condition next to his berth. I got for the purpose several comparisons made. After I have been brought up by an old nurse. This is the anniversary of the battle of the gentlemen were much surprised when they heard the concert was put all the time came to ship Capt. I had to go to have a few more meetings that night themselves without them for a night. As they were to have a few more meetings that night when ship Capt. told me that I had indeed been there. We can enjoy ourselves without them. I ordered a bottle of mulled port wine. The steward said as some cake to them. They came rather soon so they were put into my cabin. All we had danced to to the ship a dance which we have found very useful for warming ourselves I think of the old days. When we are cold after the dinner dancing game to be we called for our wine. I began our toast. Maggie's health was further brought out 3 times 3 on the South Atlantic the gentlemen in the meantime got used but we should be offended. I thought we were coming out now & then I sending a boy with a heated poker on one of them. I remember performing some of these tricks I gave a nurse as well. We treated Capt. White, the ladies & the gentlemen. I enjoyed our dinner much & made as much of our entertainment as we could. I thought that we did not need them to amuse us that with a lack of nothing anxious to know what they were about. Their curiosity was raised to know what we were doing. I tried the ladies to sing. As the wine had got a little cold I put some into the bottle with the bits of wine soon. We kept it hot & comfortable. I was quite pleased with it. In the I joined at the supper table when a bottle of mulled port was sent. To send the ladies to think the health of Mr. Wrighton's health which we all did with great good will as you may see. Mr. Wrighton is a great favorite with Capt. White. I by getting it squeezed in Mr. Wrighton's chair it was most pleasant. I had at my meals. I had a heap of similar in cold water. The aspect had been going very fast the day before to be home.

Thursday 20
The Capt. did not come to table today. His eye is getting very bad. I think is going to make a page for the little book. I am to give him. I hope to write a gift from a battery of Miss Cady's ship. Capt. White's principal enjoyment was George says he never said so many pleasant things that almost all the crew are laughing. Phillipine and Miss Cady are home. I think they will stay a while. In the evening Mr. Wrighton read some of the South Atlantic about
