

Chief Justice knowing his father. We were all much amused when introduced to Mr. Bruin whom we had heard so much of, she is a large and somewhat masculine woman; poor Mr. Prince looked very small and much by her side, it was only too evident she had that team in hand, it was all Charles do this and Charles do that in an imperious manner, she caused quite a sensation on board when Mr. Prince took her the day after he landed we were scarcely good enough to respect it to, poor Bruin had found his keeper.

Such is a full true and particular account of all that has occurred to me during the last three months containing the whole truth and nothing but the truth, I do not know that I can exactly say it has been the happiest time I have known, but I can say I have not in any one place experienced such a continuous season of happiness, there is no road without a thorn and no water, one exempt from trials, but in this case with me the thorn was small and the trials comparatively slight, on looking back upon the voyage I am happy to say I have little if any regret, and much very much to be very thankful for, mercies both temporal and spiritual have been through the goodness and lovingkindness of God plentifully vouchsafed unto me and I have experienced the truth of the promise Commit thy way unto the Lord, and he shall bring it to pass. <sup>troubled in things</sup> May he grant me grace to shew forth his praises not only by my lips but in my life.

J. W. Wheeler