

Sept. 5th Friday, & N. E. fine, cord of Black Pine out of the yard to Capt. ~~James~~^{Garrison}, 1000 lbs of flour from the Wind mill home, 200 to Mr. Vincent. Ploughing up Armagh Str. put my eye in the Plough handle, cutting chaff
2 P.M.

Sept. 6th Saturday, white frost. fine N. W. 1 P.M. by. Ploughing up Armagh Str. a.m. driving away earth P.M. into the Mechanic's in evening

Sept. 7th Sunday, a light shower a.m. N. E. C. Bozzo
I myself walked up to Gizzo & spent the day.

Sept. 8th Monday, hvy. dew. S. W. till 1 P.M. N. E. carting earth off Armagh Str.

Sept. 9th Tuesday, hvy. dew. N. E. S. W. after five P.M. ploughing Armagh Str. a.m. cutting chaff P.M.

Sept. 10th Wednesday, white frost, fine, S. W. a.m. N. E. after 2 P.M. Cord of Black Pine from Hoonhay into the yard. Awful road, full of great holes & cuts. Took half out onto the metalled road & then returned & fetched the other, capsized once. no damage done.

Sept. 11th Thursday, hvy. dew, N. E. a.m. N. E & S. W. straining for the mastery P.M. S. W. gained about 5 P.M. — threatening, 23 rails out of the yard down to the paddock 14 Post & 30 rails from Clarksons stack, to do. went 75 lbs of hay from up the Lincoln road, home, loaded up for Bridges up country to morrow, 27 Bushels of oats 300 Pailings & 200 ft of 3x3. O. D.

Sept. 12th Friday, showery last night, very hvy between the dry river bed & 3 miles this side of Gizzo, showery a.m. fine P.M.
S.W. up to Gizzo. late 6 P.M.

Sept. 13th Saturday, showery last night & a.m. S. W. S. E.
on to Bridges station dairy station, 17 miles from Gizzo passed Inville watershed & walk about 6 miles on. Some good country around Bridges, plenty of good creeks, & palms abounding. seem quite a relief, after passing a naked plain for miles. but will be a draw back to the cultivation thereof. B. has a new house 5 rooms below & 3 up stairs the walls of cob & timber & shingle roof. not finished.
But a dairy, poor stockyard, wood very scarce in the vicinity, a good many head of cattle & 500 ewes lambing down. suff & ready.

Sept. 14th Sunday, a few heat drops a.m. S. E. lying about & reading 2 P.M. turned the horses loose. B. read prayers in the evening. Put a letter to Mother Lovett ^{white post}.

Sept. 15th Monday, a few light showers & cold N.E. left Bridges about 1/2 past six a.m. straight through, home about 7 P.M. stopped at Gizzo to Breakfast.