

He went through his part remarkably well, & so did (Miss Atkins) his wife, when the first scene passed behind a rock, then she stood a majestic figure dressed in the attire of St. Mary's wife, a highland chiefess armed with a broadsword & shield, but I cannot find words to express my feelings, suffice it to say that every one enjoyed it much. The next ^{piece} was a good piece, thus I did not think as much of it. or they will say in more about it.

Jan 2. Saturday, fine, hot. ^{at} by all quarters a.m. by N. E. & N. W. paperhanging at the corner till 3 P.M. helping in C's shop after putting down butter & etc. by busy.

One of Browns men, Tom Damon, was kicked today dangerously in the head, by Jacksons horse, up at Whites on the Daimathirisi. I was brought down to the Hospital.

Jan 3. Sunday, dew. fine. N. E. to C. morning & evening, to the Hospital from that poor fellow is doing nicely, to Browns to make enquiries about him from found them all well. to Cookham house to tea & evening (after Ch) all well & spent a very pleasant evening. reading & singing etc.

Jan 4. Monday, dew. fine, N. E. by ^{dew} at times by N. W. putting up fittings & etc. early & late to Higgins in to Browns packed up &

Jan 5. Tuesday, dew. fine N. W. by ^{made some little purchases} at times, early & late putting up fittings & etc. to Higgins in the evening.

Jan 6. Wednesday, dew. fine, by ^{at} N. E. by N. W.

after 5 P.M. cleaning up, moving crates of Groceries from C's to my place, unpacking, to ^{to} to in the evening.

Jan 7. Thursday, dew. fine, N. W. round to N. E. 11 a.m. by. moving crates & Groceries up to my place, unpacking P.M. & putting them up. Mr. G. B. came & we got the lease signed & witnessed by J. W. I have one copy. We signed & Mr. B. witnessed the agreement of partnership.

Jan 8. Friday, all quarters by ^{at} at times Shower 5 P.M. unpacking Groceries, to C. Prate Levy Brothers, short of specified invoice. the cases contents tally & so do Mr. Leas.

Jan 9. Saturday, Showery a.m. by ^{at} by rain P.M. unpacking Groceries & etc. helping in Mr. C's shop in the evening.

Jan 10. Sunday, a few showers, P. W. to church Morning & evening reading P.M. Saw W. Richard in the evening & walked down the heavy road with him. to Browns in the evening, late home.

Jan 11. Monday, fine Showery evening, scrubbing out the shop cleaning windows etc. to Mr. Buggs in the evening.

Jan 12. Tuesday, by ^{at} by rain early from fine P. W. to C. after 4 P.M. putting shop to right helping in Cuddons. Marking off.

Jan 13. Wednesday, fine, N. E. N. W. P.M. Putting up things & Marking off, helping at Cuddons. in the evening a bullock rushed at a man just in front & went headlong into the river the man sprang on one side, a crowd soon collected the bullock swam