

Experience has taught me that I have been to ready to trust to words & looks, to smooth tongues & pleasant manners; but, with this lesson, I have learned another - that there are friends good & true, into whom the soul can discharge itself without dread.

"C. W. d.

Whoe turned the path, in shadow hid,

Round many a rocky pyramid,
Shooting abruptly from the dell

To thunder-splintered minnachs;
Round many an insulated mass,

The native bulwarks of the pass
Their rocky summits, split & cut,

Horned tower, dome, & battlement:

A piece I read some time back but omitted copying it into my log book.

Jan 24. Sunday, <sup>the</sup> W. E., it came up a hurricane from the S. W.
5 P.M. & the dust was awful, light shower, ceased S.W. 5 P.M.
Cool evening, to Cettawing & evening, called to see Widdowson down to see Kitchener stopped to tea, to Cookham House after the evening & spent a few hours very pleasantly.

Jan 25. Monday, stiff W.E. by the S.W. & dusty after 9 A.M.
Cleaning the windows & putting things tonight, trade fair to Mrs. Biff in the evening. Very shower PM

Jan 26 Tuesday, dew, fine, by the S.E. dust awful, trade brisk F.B. Greenup called today, how he is altered, how he can like the life he has been leading I cannot say, he is thinking of going south to Somerset. I also saw Harrington from Scotland street he is much improved & is on the way to do well. He is at Mr.
Dey's Stonyhurst. 70 miles north of Cettawing.

Jan 27. Wednesday, dew, fine, W. E. by dusty, trade dull, painting bills for time to put in the ship, to Buddon in the evening.

Jan 28. Thursday, fine W. E. by N.W. & dusty, trade better moving harness out of the ship & putting up fittings trade better.
To Mr. B's in the evening, Carried a small case of crockery to the Fleece for Harrington

Jan 29. Friday, dew, fine W. E. but after 3 P.M. hot trade fair. putting up fittings, cases of chains & bellows in to night, to Mr. Biff's in the evening.

Jan 30. Saturday, fine S.E. altering old window & putting crockery in, in the place of ready made clothes. trade fair.

Jan 31. Sunday, fine shower 5 A.M. by S.W. up to Poyntz Fiji & family all well, found J. Primrose & the Lillies they spent the day there returned to Cettawing late in the evening.
Fiji has made that freehold & is doing well.

Feb 1st. Monday, fine awful, windly & dusty for ever by the S.W. a perfect hurricane, miserable day in its