

Feb 23. Tuesday, dew fine, by N. E. Made fair, putting shop toights & books, & Cuddons & Bozzis in the evening.

Feb. 24. Wednesday, fine, by N. E. made fair, nothing of interest

Feb. 25. Thursday, fine by S. W. by N. W. after 4 p.m. Trade fair to Cuddons in the evening, & put the books toights.

Feb. 26. Friday, N. E. by fine trade brisk, up town in the evening round Mr. Cuddons.

Feb. 27. Saturday, very showers, by S. W. Trade fair, Brown came in, I told a lot, romance in reality

Feb. 28. Sunday, showery, off S. D. to 4th morning & evening to Cuddons 1 p.m. round the town with W. Richard, talking over printing matters, went to his establishment High St. nice comfortable quarters nicely furnished late.

Feb. 29. Monday, showery a.m. S. W., fine P.M. Trade fair, closed early, to Browns in the evening

Mch 1. Tuesday, dew fine, N. E. Trade fair, to Cuddons in the evening.

Mch. 2. Wednesday, dew fine, N. E. Trade fair, bent with Mr. Cuddon in the evening to Buntington Music Hall, to see a collection of wax figures of the Human Frame & Skeletons, figures showing all the arteries in a human body. I thought the fine bones highly magnified; well worth going to see, their may be seen models, that ^{are} warming sufficient for both sexes

"Man's heart is deceitful & desperately wicked." to Mr. Bezzis after.

Mch 3. Thursday, dew, showery, by All quarters settled in N. E.
closed in trade brisk, to Cuddons in the evening.

Mch. 4. Friday, dew fine by S. W. N. E., 11 a.m. Trade fair,
to Cuddons in the evening.

Mch 5. Saturday, dew fine, by N. E. Trade brisk at times.
to Cuddons in the evening.

Mch. 6. Sunday, fine, by All quarters settled to N. E. & showery
P.M. to 4th a.m. to Cuddons the rest of the day, by quiet, lying down reading most of the time.

Mch 7. Monday, dew, splendid morning, showery after 9 a.m.
S. D. & S. E. stiff & cold. Trade fair. to Browns before 12 P.M.
& received a check for one hundred pounds. to Cuddons
in the evening.

Mch. 8. Tuesday, dew fine, very rain in the evening S. W.
Trade by dull till evening, to Mrs. Bugg's & to Cuddons in the evening.

Mch 9. Wednesday, dew fine, N. E. Trade fair, to Browns
A.M. to Goolham house in the evening found several of the inmates poorly. bad cold

Mch 10. Thursday, dew fine by S. E. Trade fair, Sunday jobs to Cuddons in the evening, poorly. wrote a letter to Dr. Lewis'