

May 11. Wednesday, dew fine, stg N. W. trade fair to Cuddon's in the evening.

May 12. Thursday, dew fine by all quarters, trade brisk P.M. to Cuddon's in the evening, writing home

May 13. Friday, dew fine, by S.W. N. E. after 11 a.m. Trade fair, writing home & to Lizzy. to Mr Cuddon's in the & talking the proposition he made today, to buy a horse & cart to run around the country to take orders, & deliver goods the resolution was passed & also the proposal to engage T. Lewis to wait in the shop.

May 14. Saturday, fine, by N. E. stiff N. W. after 10 a.m.
S.W. after 4 P.M. trade brisk P.M. up late.

May 15. Sunday, big showers after 2 P.M. by all quarters; walked over to Governor's Bay & back to see Tom Lewis, dined at Mr Parsons's, Mr & Mrs Cabot from Leitch. & Miss Kouse from Colchester where their Mrs P. is poorly in bed.
went over to Mr Dyers P.M. but walk home reached home conscience stricken, about 7 P.M.

May 16. Monday, steady rain all day by S.W. trade dull in consequence, wrote a letter to Liz & Mother. We made a purchase today of Mr Deasly who is about returning to to England in the Mermaid, a horse & cart & harness, 20 down & 9 three months. quiet work, only just decided & here we are all complete excepting man, to Cuddon's in the evening.

May 17. Tuesday, stg N. W. fine trade fair. T. Lewis came over today. to Cuddon's clearing old store for a stable.

May 18. Wednesday, stg N. W. by stg last night big squall of rain a.m. trade fair. T. Lewis at the store self down to Cuddon's making stable for horse, late home

May 19. Thursday, frost. fine by S.W. N. E. stg
N. W. P.M. up at Cuddon's a.m. in the store P.M.
T. Lewis up at Cuddon's cutting out patterns.

May 20. Friday, squally, S.W. rain. Shifted the harness to Boggis's, trade dull. to Cuddon's in the evening.

May 21. Saturday, fall storms during the night ground quite white this morning. big showers all day
S.W. Trade very dull brisk in the evening.

May 22. Sunday, fine, S.W. church morning & evening, for a walk round the town P.M. to Boggis's in the evening. Received a letter from Mother.

May 23. Monday, fine, dew. calm, out with the cart