

July 10. Sunday, fine; threatening S.W. to ch. a.m.
to Boggis' on & evening.

July 11. Monday, fine frost. R.C. round the Hallwell district with the cart. Trade fair

July 12. Tuesday, fine R.C. delivering potatoes & flour Trade fair

July 13. Wednesday, fine R.C. round by the Water holes & racecourse Trade fair.

July 14. Thursday, fine R.C. picking over plums & busy in the shop. To Cuddons in the evening. Trade bush

July 15. Friday, showery a.m. S.W. R.C. out for orders Trade dull wrote to mother & D. Llantarnam finer.

July 16. Saturday, showery & w. Trade dull, out with the Cart a.m. in the shop p.m.

July 17 Sunday, fine S.W. at ch. morning and evening, rode up to Biggi p.m. to Cookham house in the evening, spent a pleasant evening.

July 18. Monday, thick fog. cleared R.C. round the Hallwell district with the cart. Trade fair.

July 19. Tuesday, fine, posting up my books etc. Trade fair

July 20. Wednesday, thick fog. S.W. a.m. R.C. now round by the waterholes & racecourse late home Trade fair

July 21. Thursday, fine R.C. clearing away manure & rubbish from the back down to the Paddock. Went to a small party at Mr. Woods Riccarton in the evening, spent a pleasant evening looking over the mill & grounds, playing chess, drafts & etc.
broke up the party at midnight, pleasant walk home, beautiful Moonlight.

July 22. Friday, fine, R.C. not taking orders & etc Trade dull

July 23. Saturday, fine, R.C. delivering orders & etc, Trade bush on the jury to enquire, into the cause of the death of R. Willy, a prisoner in custody, verdict natural death from exhaustion brought on by Typhoid fever. & abscess forming on different parts of his body.

July 24. Sunday, fine, thick mist a.m & sun early & late S.W. reading & etc to Mr. March's South Park to tea & spent the evening

July 25. Monday, mostly stiff R.C. out with the Cart Hallwell district home late trade fair, to Browns in the evening.

July 26. Tuesday, fine R.C. round the town, Trade fair getting orders ready for tomorrow

July 27. Wednesday, fine, R.C cold round the waterholes & racecourse with the cart. To the Mechanics

July 28 Thursday, fine, out taking orders & etc Trade fair disagreement

July 29. Friday, showery S.W. out delivering potatoes