

1865 Jan. 3. Tuesday, very Gale from N.W. a perfect Hurricane, it did considerable damage to property both in Colombo & Port houses blown down & chimney stacks, boats sunk etc., it rained hard to S.W. about 2 p.m. I canied in torrents for a few hours. Trade fair, to Mr. C. & I settled up in the evening.

Jan 4. Wednesday, fine, by S.W. 11 a.m.
Trade fair. Balanced assets & liabilities, quite satisfactory better than I expected. Mr. B's ^{in the} evening

Jan 5. Thursday, fine H. & C. Trade Fair After carrying out Crockery in the evening, to Mr. Bojji to settle up.

Jan 6. Friday, fine H. & C. 8. m. trade fair to Mr. Brown's Team Str in the evening.

Jan 7. Saturday, fine H. & C. Trade brisk, late for a walk up town after closing.

Jan 8. Sunday, fine H. & C. As ^{bitter} as yesterday To Colombo to Mr. Digby's P.m. stopped to tea to Mr. Bojji's in the evening

Jan. 9. Monday, fine, by H. & C. a.m., visited P.W. P.m. by boat over to Port to a sale of Hargraaves, clothing & groceries. I enjoyed the change much, home by six p.m., made fair to Mr. C's in the evening.

Jan 10. Tuesday, fine, H. & C. stiff, trade fair to Mr. Brown's team & spent a pleasant evening

Jan 11. Wednesday, fine, H. & C after 11 a.m.
Trade brisk P.m. to Mr. Beaufort, he is much better, to Mr. C's, home with Mr. B..

Jan 12. Thursday, fine, H. & C. Trade brisk. up to Mr. Taylors in the evening, spent a pleasant evening

Jan 13. Friday, fine H. & C. Trade fair, for a walk up town

Jan 14. Saturday, hot & sultry, bitter-like air.
& the very pores of one's skin seem to be parched from the effects of the oppressive atmosphere, very busy, especially P.m. & evening, late closed.

Jan 15. Sunday, hot over head, flowing from H. & C by hot, to Ch. a.m. wrote home to my brother John went to Geo. Chinnall's, Colombo Str P.m. stopped to tea what to St. Lukes Ch. in the evening, then on to Cookham house, I spent a pleasant evening.

My twenty fourth birthday

Jan 16. Monday, fine, H. & C. Trade fair, to the sprouts in the evening.