

Feb 2. Thursday, fine, h. & c. Trade dull, to Mr Coddon's in the evening & settled Monthly Acct.

Feb 3. Friday, fine, h. & c. A & D p.m. hot, Trade dull, weighing up for tomorrow to Mr Boggis's in the evening Feb. 4. Saturday, fine, v. hot. Dr. W.

Trade fair, late closed.

Feb 5. Sunday, fine, v. hot, st^g Dr. W. to Ch morning & evening, to Mr Brown's p.m. for a walk with Quiller after ch in the evening & back to the Generals.

Feb. 6. Monday, fine, a light S. Wester cleared the atmosphere last night, pleasant day, stiff h. & c. P.m., Trade fair, for a walk up town with Mr C. in the evening.

Feb. 7. Tuesday, fine, h. & c. Trade dull, money coming in freer, to Mr Brown's St Stephen's in the evening.

Feb 8. Wednesday, fine, h. & c. hot miserable day, by fire, on the Whately road, burnt down three shops & part of small house belonging to the D Taylors Brewery. Trade very dull for a walk to view of the late fire in the evening

Feb 9. Thursday, fine h. & trade dull, to Mr Boggis in the evening.

Feb 10. Friday, fine, h. & c. Trade dull, to Mr Coddon's in the evening

Feb 11. Saturday, fine, b; a.m. h. & c. p.m. trade fair, money coming in steadily. late shut.

Feb 12. Sunday, fine lovely Day by h. & c. to ch a.m. to W Packards to dinner & tea, for a walk down to Clarkson Bros & back p.m. to St Lukes in the evening, the singing v. good especially an anthem from the 45 Psalm "Dear my prayer".
I was thrilled & almost melted, by those beautiful sounds, (or in' Carols lead,) the singing was magnificent for the time the world seemed lost to me so — silent was my ear to catch evy sound as it flew past me, A Heaven on earth; what must it be in Heaven it self; a pleasant dream; but of short duration, like all earthly enjoyments. Mr Jacobs preached a v. good sermon.

home direct after a quiet walk round the cemetery, I wrote two letters home

Feb 13. Monday, fine, h. & c. Trade fair, four Crates Prokery in off Eastern Emprie, to the New