

Arch 4. Saturday, fine, N.E., S.W. I am trade brisk, tired out, good week.

Arch 5. Sunday, fine N.E. to Ceb. morning &
evening, for a walk with Quiller round the domain
& then on to the Cemetery P.m., for a walk up —
Colombia Dr. in the evening & then to the "Generals".

Arch 6. Monday, fine, N.E., trade fair, to the Theatre in the evening to see Dillon's "Macbeth," disappointed late home, to Mr C's to supper.

Arch 7. Tuesday fine, by SW. very hot a.m. h.
P.m. trade fair. to the "Generals".

Arch 8. Wednesday, fine, N.E., very rain after 10
P.m. trade fair. took Mrs Colclough to see "Hamlet"
in the evening. Mr Dillon's Hamlet, was splendidly done & well sustained throughout, & Mr Dillon's Ophelia
was splendidly done. late home

Arch 9. Thursday, showery, trade dull, Dr. C. to Mr C's in the evening.

Arch 10. Friday, showery a.m. very rain last night
S.W. trade dull. For a walk up down, to Mr C's in the evening

Arch 11. Saturday, fine. Dr. C. Trade very brisk well pleased, for a walk up down after closing

Arch. 12. Sunday, fine N.E. to Ceb. a.m. for a walk with Quiller to Dr. Digby's, P.m. I stopped to tea spent a few pleasant hours, which past quickly on, I am gone!

home early to the Generals, in the evening.

Arch 13. Monday, showery from S.W. h. by S.W.
Trade brisk, up down a.m. The town seems all alive with diggers, & the whole furniture being at their backs passing through on their way to Hukitiki, to the ~~near~~ Cantertbury gold fields, a new "Eldorado". To at last! Cantertbury can boast of her gold fields, she has received an additional spur to ~~for~~ help her on when she most needed it, & if the fields are prolific & continue so! Cantertbury will vie with Ataya itself, for she has vaster resources, but! if! it turns out a shiner Doe! woe! be to the men of Cantor.

Arch 14. Tuesday, fine, N.E. Trade brisk, to the Browns in the evening. We are about to start a store at the Wai-tahi gorge.

Arch 15. Wednesday, fine N.E., trade fair, to the Theatre with Quiller.

Arch 16. Thursday, fine shower from h.w.
trade fair, to Dr. C's in the evening