

To Mr. Browns in the evening.

Apl 7. Friday, fine, h. & c. Trade fair, for a walk up town in the evening, called to see the General.

Apl 8. Saturday, fine, h. & c, trade dull a.m. bush after 2 p.m. fair week. average

Apl. 9. Sunday. fine lovely day h. & c, went up to Joseph Grinleys I spent the day, called at Donrigg's coming home. stg h. & c after 6 p.m.

Apl 10. Monday, fine, h. & c. Trade fair, down to Brown's Paddock, with Dr. C. to dress half a ton of rice, kenned a dressing machine of coupe, we ran it threw once, it took all the dust out & most of the weevils, (a small insect which devours the rice & when any numbers exist do considerale damage) to the Generals in the evening

Apl 11. Tuesday, fine h. & c. a.m. h. & c p.m. Trade dull, to Mr. Brown's Carpenter man str in the evening spent a pleasant evening

Apl 12. Wednesday, fine, h. & c. by staff a.m. h. & c about three p.m. round to h. & c. ear night Trade fair putting my books to rights, to the mechanics & changed my book sat reading till eight eleven o'clock

Apl 13 Thursday, by h. & c after 10 a.m. Trade fair. up town P.m. to Peacock & co. to Mr. Brown's St Alaph str & in the evening, spent a pleasant evening, though disappointed in my intent.

Apl 14. Friday, fine, h. & c lovely day, go ch morning & evening, for a walk up the hills with Frank P.m. to the generals in the evening.

Apl 15. Saturday, fine, staff h. & c after 10 a.m. trade brisk, rather dull in the evening

Apl 16. Sunday, fine, h. & c a.m. stg h. & c p.m. to ch morning & evening, within reading p.m. to Mr. Bruntins in the evening.

Apl 17. Monday, fine lovely day, stg h. & c general Holiday, down to Hillsborough, where the men of Cawthron have formed a camp, wherein, those who have volunteered to serve their country, have dwelt since Saturday, last, for the purpose of insulating them to their duties; About 330 volunteers on the ground including the Cavalry fifty in number, they went through their martial, exercises & manevours, with great steadyness & precision