

May 14. Monday, fine N. E. Trade fair, salting butter & cleaning up the Shop, to Mr Mallett's after.

May 15. Tuesday. fine. N. E. Trade fair, wrote home to Mother & sent "our" "Carde de visites". to Mr Proggis after.

Gov. Joe Digby was accidentally killed today at Maccarton. A wagon ran over his stomach & caused all most instant death. How sudden.
Poor fellow, if unprepared how awful, to be called momentarily to stand before his Maker.

May 16. Wednesday, thys, frost by but a.m.
by S. W. S. W. in the evening Showery, Trade dull, to Mr Mallett's in the evening.

May 17. Thursday. fine. S. W. threatening, Trade fair, out for & delivering orders, to Mr Mallett in the evening.

May 18. Friday, fine, N. E. cold Trade dull to St John's in the evening, to Mr Brown's at 10 o'clock in the afternoon.

May 19. Saturday, fine, N. E. Trade built trunk over.

May 20. Sunday. fine, N. E. to School & ch as usual to Mr Digby's to dinner, to Mr Brown's after ch. in the evening & on to Mr Mallett's, May 21. Monday. Showery N. E. Trade dull up town 9. m. at home writing in the evening.

May 22. Tuesday. fine N. E. Trade fair, to Mr Mallett's in the evening.

May 23. Wednesday. Showery S. W. N. E. after
3. P. m. out for & delivering orders, at home in the evening.

May 24. Thursday. Showery calm a.m. high rain 9. m. rode over to Governor's Bay early to Friend Cole's wedding, held at Mr Parsons's, the ceremony of "tying up" took place in Governor's Bay ch. My beloved was Brides maid, & I was groom-man, the Bride Miss Barker, went over last Saturday.
Mr Parsons had a splendid "spread" for breakfast. we enjoyed ourselves much, Mr Parsons being as lively & full of jokes as ever.

May 25. Friday, oh! my word still wet, the rain coming down as if it meant it & the wind angry with all impediments in its onward progress.
no use of thinking of facing the hill today so we settled down to amuseing ourselves by reading, singing, sitting, card playing & etc