

Sept 13. Thursday, fine 9 a.m. h. & p.m.
Trade! don't mention it; is it trade well if that when trade indeed, I'd na ha much more oil, for dull it was a time enough for 'clivie and nails.'

For a walk round the Domain in the twilight of the declining day, pleasant it was & invigorating too, for all the senses were gratified thereby.

Sept 14. Friday, a show of rain a few drops felt & made the parched earth rejoice, only to be disappointed by the mirage, for it had passed off & still the Dry weather carries the sway, & I. w. a.m. N. & p.m. trade brisk, at home in the evening

Sept 15. Saturday, Showy last night fine h. & p.m. trade brisk, week a little below average.

Sept 16. Sunday Showy till 9 a.m. fine lovely day N. & p.m. I. sch. as usual Mr. Hume preached an excellent sermon from "God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of Christ."

To Mr Brown at Waikeke for awhile after.
Sept 17. Monday, fine N. & p.m. packing eggs & butter for Hokitiki, Trade fair! at home writing in the evening to Mr. W.
& James.

Sept 18. Tuesday, fine h. & p.m. trade fair, cleared a good amt of surplus butter & eggs at a fair profit, at home in the evening

Sept 19. Wednesday, fine h. & p.m. Trade dull out for orders, To Mr. W. in the evening. Mail in, news conflicting.

The Manu-gatapu Murders, Beres Loy, Kelly & Sullivan for the Murder of poor Old "Battle."

Sept 20. Thursday, fine h. & p.m. Trade fair received a letter from John & a note from Wether enclosed a likeness of John and also of George's old school house the where Wether lives. at home in the evening

Sept 21. Friday, N. & p.m. inclining to N. W.
Trade brisk, at home in the evening posting up my books!