Rogation Sunday - Proclamation

10 Mon 130-235

steaming about
while the torpedo boats were ~~by~~ ⁱⁿ the mad, after a while they settled down again and things went on
as usual.

11 Tu 131-234

The ships apparently sighted a good target
and we heard
afterwards that it
was a bironae
estimated to contain 10,000 Turks

12 Wed 132-233

Ascension Day - Holy Thursday

13 Th 133-232

they all started firing like mad and there must have been considerably
less Turks by than the bironae than there
was actually in it

14 Fri 134-231

one ship went
in too close and
ran aground but

15 Sat 135-230

was got off fairly easily. The Turks
replied with some heavy stuff but went nowhere near the ships to the great
amusement of our men watching. There is usually something on on a Sunday we did not see any days
a week and saw a scrap of the serpent. Today Monday
there is an admiral
on ~~at~~ but the Peace Party has to work for all that they are crumbling a bit
as their issue of 10,000 and more
is defaced, but the work is being done
had quite a life a fall landed eight letters
yesterday and today
it rained today but we were fairly
