

16 Sun 136-229
Sunday after Ascension

over slowly
with a smother of
foam as her masts
and funnels

17 Mon 137-228

hit the water, she went further over
while a great froth

18 Tu 138-227

apparently from escaping steam was all around her, finally with her keel in the

19 Wed 139-226

air she stopped a
while, torpedoes boats
dashed in and apparatly with ropes and

20 Th 140-225

collapsible boat
starting fishing the men out of water while forming an outer

21 Fri 141-224

circle were big
trawlers and pinnaker
which had steamed
away from here -

22 Sat 142-223

any ac Cove -
and formed a circle
to water for the

reappearance of the submarine. A few shots were fired from one or two destroyers
but we could see no
target and could not see any results. She stayed upside down
for a few minutes
apparently buoyed up
by air inside and
then her nose sank
and her stern rose ~~appeared~~ until about ten feet of
decking was out of water then she rolled over away
from us and ~~dis-~~ disappeared. The destroyer steamed away ~~fast~~ but then came not till
then did any fast
artillery open fire. It was rather good anyway
to sight her but but there could have