

- 1 Sun 213-152 ^{9 aft Trinity} had said nothing at her home about it, it was awfully funny
- 2 Mon 214-151 ^{watching these two} girls trying to persuade the little one to go home and tell some fanciful story or say she had not seen us at all or some such yarn, anyhow after a lot of persuading
- 4 Wed 216-149 she went off but was apparently "pumped" we went on and finally finished up in the "Pagoda"
- 5 Th 217-148 ^{when to our dismay} along came the remainder of the girls sisters, three of them, so we said a few things under our breath, and after a while started homeward, meeting Mme Flany, who, contrary to our expectations invited us to tea, which invitation we will make use of on Monday probably I have been kept in my room two days now but will be all right by then I hope.

Thur 15/4/15

Yesterday we went in to Cairo and had a good time - Wilson & I - we were invited to tea by the Ratchowski family. Old Jules R. - who is one of the richest men in Cairo was very affable and we had everything at his expense. ~~it was~~ Madame was very kind while we found the two Malles very good company so good indeed that we missed the train and were out longer than we had leave for and were consequently "on the mat."
