

We have an invitation to repeat the visit but I expect we will be busy at the Dardanelles shortly and won't have time to accept it. The ~~poor~~ family has a Polish mother but not much Polish blood. I should think

Saw Aldredge
yesterday in Helipolis Palace Hotel, shot on the corner of the right eye, being blind in it now but expects to recover the sight soon.
got it at the redoubtable Quinn's Port.

I expect to leave here about the end of the week and leave for Gallipoli on Wednesday
So, soon be exchanging the present good food and nice air for the stinks and flies and bully buff of Anzac

On the transport
"Borda" just leaving Alexandria. I am a bit behind with my diary.

On leaving Helipolis I went into cash at Futour on the 20th supposing to go with the draft on 22nd but was not told off for it so I obtained leave and
and took a trip to Alexandria. The Cairo
Alex. Express is a beautiful train going about sixty miles and four. I got out at
"Sidi Baha" and went to Mustapha barracks first to arrange to take my kit down to Futour and then
