

Our Cook-house at Baggush. Sgt. Jack Flaherty (Timaru) in shirt-sleeves. A marvellous cook. Stove was an oil-drum on its side, with oil-burner under-neath. Dec. 1941

The rocky sea-shore. Baggush.

Not much to eat here! Out on a route-march.

Going down for a look at the coast-line.

Returning from route-march. I'm carrying map-case.

Sun-set. Winter time. Cold wind of ten from the sea. We wore battle-dress, great-coats, balaclavas.
