

Mobile showers. Ben trying not to look bashful.

Train in Syria.

In the grounds of the American University - Beirut

In March, 1942, the NZ Div. moved to Syria, to be of assistance in the event of the Germans making a thrust through Turkey.

Troops moved by rail & road transport, across the Canal, the Sinai Desert, Palestine, Lebanon and Syria. It was a welcome change from the sands of the Egyptian desert.

Street scene - Beirut - Lebanon.

Arabs winnowing grain - Palestine. 1942

British cemetery - Beersheba.
World War I.