

German truck & M.E.110 roaring across the desert.

One that hit the dust. A Jerry J.U. 87 (Stuka)

For quite a while the fighting was very fluid. There was no front line. We were never in the same locality for more than a day or so. We even came back to Alexandria for a day's leave when reinforcements arrived. The enemy's lines of communication were very stretched and Rommel had a lot to contend with.

Two of our Fighters (Hurricanes). Note tank tracks.

Bombing raid (ours) near Tel-el-Eisa.
