

AUGUST

27 (Thurs.) Read Library book. The Inter-preter - Philip Gibbs. Heard that Major Moziet is dead - also Cpl. Healey. Went to Operating theatre at midday.

28 (Friday.) Wrote to Mum. Leg a bit sore. Letter from Sister England.
Kiwis now bombed from Florence (so B.B.C. says.)

29 (Sat.) Wrote to Sister England.
Hot day. Sick of pills.

30 (Sun.) Kiwis still battling for Florence.

31 (Mon.) Wrote to Capt. Millbourn.

(Tues.) Wrote to Edna. Expect Hay

brought in - wounded by Browning bullet in leg & arm. Read The Good Companions. Roy Kursten killed.

2 (Wed.) Had leg X-rayed. Laurie's
Canadian Nurse visited him again.
Has been every afternoon. Looked charming in blue & white uniform with silver buttons today.

3 (Thursday.) Felt much better today.
Read "The Citadel." Rock-walton for tea.

4 (Friday.) Wrote A.G. to Mum.
Wrote to Edna Read "This freedom."

August, 1944