Dear Mum,

Here I am again, fit & well. Your letter No. 1. written in September arrived a week ago, & I have now received all your letters. The first three took a long time to reach here, owing to their having been sent by surface mail.

Please note my change of address. I am now in the Intelligence Section. This is what I have been hoping all along to get into, as it is more in my line. This is Map & Compass work included & it should be very interesting. I am now quartered in a "bug-out" somewhere up the "Blue" & as they say over
