44 but a barren waste; not worth a bit an acre. The day after we arrived here, we experienced a slight dust storm. We wore our eye-shields. It was bad enough, but must expect much worse I suppose. We are allowed a water bottle of water a day, to shave wash & anything else. At present the weather is quite cool here & we are wearing battle dress.
The wind seems to blow from all points of the compass.
Well, a week ago today, I had leave from Base Camp & Colin & I visited the Pyramids at Giza for the second time. We climbed to the top of the great pyramid & took some snaps. At night we visited the "Music for all Club" heard some first class music.
Colin is still at Base Camp & Bob is at a hospital some.
