Dear Mum,

I am on my way at last, but as yet haven't got very far. I am at the N. Z.
Forces Club, Cairo, as I write these lines. I was up at 4 o'clock this morning, soon had my 4 blankets & gear packed up.
Had breakfast at 5 A.M. & with 7 other chaps, was brought in to the Cairo station by truck.
When we arrived we found that our train doesn't go till this afternoon. This sort of thing isn't unusual & we get quite used to waiting. We left our gear at the station, with two chaps to look after it, & I come on here to the Club
