The use of the ball-room in the Governor's palace not far from here (just around the corner in fact.) The palace is a magnificent structure of stone & marble with lovely grounds. The ball-room, although not so large as we would wish, is a lovely room with decorated ceiling, concealed lighting also. Our carpenters & electricians put up the stage in the correct manner, with foot lights, coloured spot light, curtains, of course ferns & flowers as finishing touches. We are lucky in having a chef who has had many years on the stage in a professional capacity. She is an excellent pianist as well.

We have been able to collect costumes to suit our items; Italian colonel's dress uniform (brand new) my frocks & things & so on.
