Dear Mum + Dad,

It is some weeks now since I last wrote to you, but you have probably guessed the reason why no letters have arrived for some time. We have been in action again, so of course letter writing is out of the question then. I am pleased to say I came through the conflict without a scratch.

Since my last letters to you, written not far from Gates in the South of Hunnia, we pushed on in pursuit of the retreating enemy. We were able to see much of the country at close range. The farther north we came, the better the country appeared. We passed through thousands of acres of olive trees.
