

camp who were all going to the leave camp in Palestine. They were privates except one - another Sgt. - Alan Boyd whose people have a pretty big sheep run in Central Otago - so he + I got together + stayed together during the course of our holiday.

We were taken by truck from camp to the main station in Cairo + there we boarded the leave train. It finally left - more than two hours late (but nothing unusual