Dear Mum & Dad,

Here I am again, fit & well. No more letters have arrived since the last lot (the last one being dated 18 July) so I expect I will have to wait a month or so for the next batch. Yesterday I received the last of Edna's mail, her letter being dated 18th. July, also.

Well, last Wed. week I went to Div. H.Q. for the interview regarding O.C.T.U. but missed being selected. The reason for not being selected was not given: it never is, but I fancy it was on account of my age which as you know is creeping up. However, it
