Dear Mum & Dad,
Today is
- the last day of 1943, & also my
- last day at this leave camp
- so I am writing a few
- lines before we leave to-mor.
- row morning for our next
- camp where training will begin on Monday.

I have had a delightful time here. The food has been equal to anything you would get at any hotel
- & we've even had apple pie!

The weather this week has been sunny with the

<sup>21</sup> exception of yesterday which was showery. I forgot in my last letter to tell you about the "Mule Derby" which was held on the camp race track on Boxing Day.
It was run like a real race meeting, but the mules had no saddles. You've never seen anything so funny. One mule was leading in one race - when suddenly, for no reason, it stopped dead & refused to move. Everyone roared.
During another race, two mules jumped the ropes at the side of the course & went off in another direction.
I was sore with laughing.
