Dear Mum & Dad,

At present the worst sand storm I have seen in Base Camp is blowing & every now & again I have to rub my eyes & blow the sand off my paper. I'm orderly officer today & am writing this in my office. Yesterday afternoon was wretched too when the wind began, & I was out at Sakkara with twenty of our chaps on a sight seeing tour. The Church Army arranged a trip for this Sunday & asked me if I could get a truck load. That's no difficulty in getting
