would go on living & have need of these things.

It was terribly hot out there yesterday & I rode on a donkey some of the time. The Church Army provided soft drinks for lunch. As we were returning to camp, the wind began to blow & soon the sand was flying. Lay on top of my bed last night - it was too hot to sleep. I'm hoping the wretched wind will blow itself out tonight, but these things sometimes last for days.

During the week, I went to a lecture by a Dr. Ward of Cairo - on the U.S.A. Part of the time we were out of doors & for the remainder inside, at the Church Army Hut in camp here. Dr. Ward is the
