

New Zealand country journal

A selective list of articles, compiled by Richard Greenaway

Vol. 1 no. 2, April 2, 1877

The experimental farm, Canterbury, p. 75-77.

On the idea of establishing what became Lincoln College (now University)

Scab in sheep, p. 87-93 [in 19th century Canterbury a major problem].

Vol. 1 no. 3, July 2, 1877

Scab in sheep and its cure, p. 161-169.

Profits of ostrich farming (from London spectator [the industry had not yet been established in Canterbury], p. 207-208.

Vol. 2 no. 3, May 1, 1878

Out in the open, p. 139-146 - the beginning of T.H. Potts' articles on natural history, later published as a book.

Reclamation of lands devastated by shifting sands, by R. Wells, p. 146-148 - relevant as this was necessary from New Brighton northward on Pegasus Bay

Vol. 2 no. 4, July 1, 1878

Out in the open, by T.H. Potts, p. 207-226.

Vol. 2 no. 5, September 2, 1878

Out in the open, by T.H. Potts, p. 275-288.

Vol. 2 no. 6, November 1, 1878

Reapers and binders: their influence on farm economy, p. 343-347
Reapers and binders were a major innovation in grain harvesting

Out in the open, by T.H. Potts, p. 390-397

Vol. 3 no. 1, January 1, 1879

Out in the open ... through a young plantation, by T.H. Potts, p. 34-36.

Botany. Descriptions of some new native plants by J.B. Armstrong, Government Domain, Christchurch, p. 56-59

Vol. 3 no. 2, March 1, 1879

Out in the open : a chime of the bell-bird, by T.H. Potts, p. 81-84

Vol. 3 no. 4, July 1, 1879

The native grasses, by J.B. Armstrong, p. 137-140

Out in the open : the native grasses, by T.H. Potts, p. 211-220

The forming and management of hedges, by J.B. Armstrong, p. 242-246

Vol. 3 no. 5, September 1, 1879

Out in the open ... under the mistletoe bough, by T.H. Potts, p. 267-274

New kinds of grasses [grown in the Government Domain], by J.B. Armstrong, p. 293

A gossip about grasses, by Robert Wilkin, p. 294-298

Vol. 3 no. 6, November 1, 1879

Meeting with a Moriori, by T. H. Potts: includes photograph of 'one of the few remaining members of a rapidly failing race'. The limited knowledge one possesses of the ancient inhabitants of these neighbouring islands is, at best, of a fragmentary description; it seems quite probable that the decaying race of Moriories may become extinct before such information as possibly could be obtained is placed on record ... p. 333-336.

Out in the open ... kingfishers, by T.H. Potts, p. 343-352

Vol. 4 no. 1, January 1, 1880

Traducer - racehorse - opposite p. 1 a print of an equestrian painting by G. F. Fodor: article p. 3-6 by 'Hermit' [James Selfe, 1841-1913, son of London magistrate and English Agent for Canterbury, Henry Selfe Selfe]

Out in the open ... flycatchers, , by T.H Potts, p. 41-48

Planting in towns, by J.B. Armstrong, p. 49-53

A short history of the grasses, by J.B. Armstrong, p. 69-70

Vol. 4 no. 2, March 1, 1880

Out in the open ... parrots, by T.H. Potts, p. 87-94

A short history of the grasses, by J.B. Armstrong, p. 120-122

Vol. 4 no. 3, May 1, 1880

Are small birds an unmixed evil? p. 148-154 [Small birds were commonly viewed as vermin as they ate crops]

Out in the open ... eels and eel-fishing, by T.H. Potts, p. 159-169

A short history of the grasses by J.B. Armstrong, p. 170-174

Vol. 4 no. 4, July 1, 1880

Sheep attacked by a kea, opposite p. 209

Out in the open - Kia, kea, or sheep-killer, by T.H. Potts, p. 209-219

A short history of the grasses, by J.B. Armstrong, p. 219-222

Longbeach - the property of Mr. John Grigg', p. 231-234

Vol. 4 no. 5, September 1, 1880

School of Agriculture [Lincoln College] - frontispiece picture and article written by W. E. Ivey, p. 273-279

Out in the open ... notes on rare or little known birds, by T.H. Potts, p. 288-291

A short history of the grasses, by J.B. Armstrong, p. 301-304

Vol. 4 no. 6, November 1, 1880

'Leolinus', racehorse, article on the horse and frontispiece equestrian painting by G. F. Fodor, p. 337-339

A short history of the grasses, by J.B. Armstrong, p. 340-343

Out in the open ... notes on rare or little known birds, by T.H. Potts, p. 344-348.

Vol. 5, no. 1, January 1, 1881

Out in the open, by T.H. Potts, p. 9-14

A short history of the grasses, by J.B. Armstrong, p. 54-63

Obituary for Andrew Duncan, president of the Agricultural and Pastoral Association, p. 82

Vol. 5 no. 2, March 1, 1881

'Prince Royal', Clydesdale stallion imported from Australia and property of John McKellar, Doyleston - frontispiece is equestrian painting by G. Fodor, p. 91

Out in the open ... sea-fowl, by T.H. Potts, p. 92-102

A short history of the grasses, by J.B. Armstrong, p. 121-126

Vol. 5 no. 3, May 1, 1881

The culture and manufacture of European flax in New Zealand, p. 157-163

Vol. 5 no. 4, July 1, 1881

Wool versus wheat, by George Gray, p. 225-229

The N.Z. Refrigerating Company Ltd., Dunedin, p. 263-268

The company was inquiring 'into the various modes of meat freezing and the export of the same'. (The first frozen meat was exported from New Zealand in the following year.)

The winter food of small birds, by W.E. Ivey, p. 268-270

Vol. 5 no. 5, September 1, 1881

Fallow and fallow crops, by William Jenner, p. 293-298

Dairy farming and refrigeration ... papers ... read by Mr. Brydone, 3 August 1881, p. 298-304
[Thomas Brydone was one of the founders of the frozen meat trade in New Zealand]

Small birds question, by S.C. Farr, p. 321-323

Vol. 5 no. 6, November 1, 1881

Frontispiece, Southorne, article, p. 361 'well-known Clydesdale stallion' owned by George King of Canterbury

Out in the open ... on recent changes in the fauna of New Zealand, by T.H. Potts, p.385-400

Vol. 6 no. 1, January 2, 1882

Out in the open ... black oyster-catcher ... by T.H. Potts, p. 68

Vol. 6 no. 2, March 1, 1882

A hornless breed of cattle, by Robert Wilkin, p. 75-77

What is an earthquake, by F.W. Hutton, p. 135-140

Vol. 6 no 3, May 1, 1882

Out in the open : with the gun, now - and then, by T.H. Potts, p. 149-158

The frozen meat trade in its relation to New Zealand farm economy, by William Jenner, p. 167-172

Vol. 6 no. 4, July 1, 1882

On the rotation of crops, p. 221-225

Will it pay to grow European flax? (with a view to its manufacture in the colony), p. 228-234

Out in the open : on introduced birds - the blackbird, by T.H. Potts, p. 235-242

The frozen meat export trade in relation to New Zealand farm economy. Who shall be our carriers? By William Jenner, p. 246-250

The rabbit question, by W. Quin, p. 254-257

Vol. 6 no. 5, September 1, 1882

Out in the open ... the white-eye or blight bird, by T.H. Potts, p. 301-308

The frozen meat export trade in its relation to New Zealand farm economy : review of Michael G. Mulhall's pamphlet, by William Jenner, p. 313-317

England's new sheep farm by Michael G. Mulhall, p. 319-324
Concerns the establishment of the frozen meat trade from New Zealand to England

Review of Out in the open in New Zealand, by T.H. Potts, a 'charming little work, just published ...', p. 367

Vol. 6 no. 6, November 1, 1882

Canterbury past and present, p. 381-392
A history of events in and about Christchurch from 1840-55
The notes were 'kindly prepared (by request) by Mrs. Deans of Riccarton

Utilisation of sandhills reserve, p. 405-408
Precis of a paper read by Robert Aherne, before the Kaiapoi Farmers' Club

The frozen meat export trade in its relation to New Zealand farm economy: management of sheep, by William Jenner, p. 415-420

Vol. 7 no. 1, January 1, 1883

Out in the open ... plovers, by T.H. Potts, p. 3-5

Frozen meat trade and what it is doing for our colony, p. 31-36

Canterbury past and present - continued from vol. 6, p. 332
Letter written in 1849 by William and John Deans and published in Canterbury papers, England, previous to the first of the pilgrim ships leaving England.

Vol. 7 no. 2, March 1, 1883

Out in the open, by T.H. Potts, p. 83-92

Irrigation - a means of increasing the quantity of meat for exportation, by William Jenner p. 100-105

Acclimatisation of salmonidae in Canterbury, N. Z., by S.C. Farr, Hon. Secretary Acclimatisation Society, p. 127-130 [historical article]

Vol. 7 no. 3, May 1, 1883

Disease of stock, by Robert Wilkin, p. 163-164

Acclimatisation of salmonidae in Canterbury, N.Z. by S.C. Farr, p. 178-181: 'plain and simple account of the principles of the art of pisciculture'

Irrigation - a means of increasing the quantity of meat for exportation, by William Jenner, p. 181-186

Out in the open ... by T.H. Potts, p. 207-210

Vol. 7 no. 4, July 2, 1883

Settlement of Crown lands and endowment reserves, p. 247-252
Opposite p. 247 there is a map showing 'the chief towns, minor towns, roads, railways &c.

Out in the open ... the kea, or sheepkiller, by T.H. Potts, p. 270-274

Acclimatisation of salmonidae in Canterbury, N.Z. by S.C. Farr, p. 283-286

Irrigation - a means of increasing the quantity of meat for exportation, by William Jenner, p. 293-298

Vol. 7 no. 5, September 1, 1883

Cross-fertilisation in plants and its relation to agriculture, by F.W. Hutton, p. 331-334

Acclimatisation of salmonidae, Canterbury, New Zealand, by S.C. Farr, p. 357-362

The willows, by J. F. Armstrong, Curator, Government Gardens, Christchurch, p. 367-369

Vol. 7 no. 6, November 1, 1883

On the market value of artificial manures, by W.E. Ivey, p. 415-423

Acclimatisation of salmonidae, Canterbury, New Zealand, by S.C. Farr, p. 443-445

Vol. 8 no 1, January 1, 1884

Canterbury wools, a letter to the editor, by Albert Potter, p. 28-29

'... Canterbury wools are richer in yolk than Saxony'.

Acclimatisation of salmonidae, Canterbury, N. Z., by S.C. Farr, p. 34-39

Report of the School of Agriculture, Lincoln, p. 39-54: includes plan of the College

Market for our frozen meat : letter to editor, by W. Bowron, Government Inspector of dairies, p. 60-62

Vol. 8 no. 2, March 1, 1884

Acclimatisation of salmonidae, Canterbury, New Zealand, by S.C. Farr, p. 105-107

Ostriches in New Zealand, by J.T. Matson, p. 136

J. T. Matson introduced the birds to Christchurch. The birds' feathers were used for feathers in hats.

The birds were not used for their meat

Vol. 8 no. 3, May 1, 1884

Hampshire Down flock, p. 177-178

Lambs and ewes were imported for C.T. Dudley of Irwell, p. 177-178

Includes two pages as frontispiece

Acclimatisation of salmonidae, Canterbury, New Zealand, by S.C. Farr, p. 214-217

Vol. 8 no. 4, July 1, 1884

Out in the open : on recreation grounds the village green or common, by T.H. Potts, p. 277-287

Vol. 8 no. 5, September 1, 1884

Canterbury Plains water supply, by Arthur Dudley Dobson, p. 353-360

Fish culture and fish protection, by S.C. Farr, p. 385-386

School of Agriculture, Lincoln report, p. 391-407 - includes plan of College

Acclimatisation in Canterbury, a lecture by William Thomas Locke Travers, p. 408-412

[This lecture had been delivered in the Mechanics' Institute, Christchurch, on 31 March 1864]

Vol. 8 no. 6, November 1, 1884

Canterbury Plains water supply, by A. Dudley Dobson, p. 441-445

Rudimentary agriculture : why and how it should be taught in our elementary schools : a paper read before the Christchurch Branch of the New Zealand Educational Institute by Michael Murphy, p. 481-486

Acclimatisation in Canterbury, by W. Thomas Locke Travers, p. 496-500

Vol. 9 no. 1, January 1, 1885

Out in the open, by T.H. Potts, p. 3-5

Canterbury Plains water supply, by A. Dudley Dobson, p. 6-11

Vol. 10 no. 1, January 1, 1886

School of Agriculture, Lincoln, p. 3-7

Importation of English salmon ... into New Zealand with a brief narrative of events, by S.C. Farr, p. 30-35

Permanent pasture grasses, by Marmaduke Dixon, West Eyreton, p. 35-38

Vol. 10 no. 2, March 1, 1886

Out in the open, by T. H. Potts, p. 87-95

State forests, by William Morgan, p. 119-123

Importation of English salmon into New Zealand with a brief narrative of events, by S.C. Farr, p. 124-126

Acclimatisation in Canterbury, by William Thomas Locke Travers, p. 131-136

An act had been passed, the New Zealand State Forests Act, 1885

Vol. 10 no. 3, May 1, 1886

Out in the open, by T.H. Potts, p. 173-185

Agricultural education. Further argument as to why this should be introduced to the primary school curriculum, p. 186-191

Importation of English salmon ... into New Zealand with a brief narrative of events, by S.C. Farr, p. 206-211

Canterbury Agricultural and Pastoral Association annual report, p. 245-251

Photograph and obituary of Robert Wilkin, after p. 258

Vol. 10 no. 4, July 1, 1886

Out in the open : our Maori neighbours, by T.H. Potts, p. 259-262

Note on the collection, storage and distribution of water, with special regard to ... irrigation ... by Edward Dobson, p. 263-269

Homes for labourers, by Henry Overton, Meadow Bank, Ellesmere, p. 273-277

On how to provide comfortable homes to labourers on an estate: includes extract on the subject from an English newspaper

Bees - the humble bee, by S.C. Farr, p. 332-336

Vol. 10 no. 5, September 1, 1886

Notes on water supply for irrigation, by Edward Dobson, p. 347-353

Notes on planting forest trees, by T. W. Adams, p. 367-370

Importation of English salmon ... by S.C. Farr, p. 387-393

Canterbury Chamber of Commerce ... the colony's progress during the recent depression. George Gattonby Stead's address, p. 397-403

Fruit show at Christchurch - held under the auspices of the Canterbury Fruit Growers' Association, p. 417-420

Vol. 10 no. 6, November 1, 1886

Out in the open - lost game, by T.H. Potts, p. 435-439

Notes on water supply for irrigation, by Edward Dobson, p. 440-447

Rabbit nuisance, by Reginald Foster, p. 452-455

School of Agriculture, Lincoln, report of director, W. E. Ivey, p. 463-471

Vol. 11 no. 1, January 1, 1887

Notes on water supply for irrigation ... by Edward Dobson, p.1-11

Importation of English salmon ... by S.C. Farr, p. 51-54

Vol. 11 no. 2, March 1, 1887

Irrigation and its functions, by W. L., p. 88-93

Irrigation - letter to the editor, by T. Acland, p. 94

The object of irrigation - what is it, p. 94

The effect of irrigation on the land, p. 95-96

The rabbit nuisance, by Reginald Foster, p. 97-104

Importation of English salmon, by S.C. Farr, p. 132-136

Bees - winter management for beginners, by Archibald Morris, p. 163-165

Vol. 11 no. 3, May 2, 1887

The new turnip pest, p. 177-179

Importation of English salmon ... by S.C. Farr, p. 207-210

Bees - more hints, by J. Traynor, p. 248-249

The Canterbury Agricultural and Pastoral Association annual general meeting, p. 250-255

Report of the Canterbury Frozen Meat and Dairy Produce Export Company Ltd, by John Grigg, p. 256-258

Vol. 11 no. 4, July 1, 1887

Sheep husbandry, p. 265-270

Farm labourers, p. 281-284

On the relationship of farmer and farm hands

Importation of English salmon ... by S.C. Farr, p. 317-323

Bees : bees and fruit-growing, p. 346-347

Vol. 11 no. 5, September 1, 1887

Obituary for Sir Julius von Haast, opposite p. 352

Sheep husbandry, p. 353-358

Bees - disease amongst bees, by J. Hopkins, p. 423-426

Vol. 11 no. 6, November 1, 1887

Sheep husbandry, p. 439-444

Sheep dip trial : under the auspices of the Canterbury Agricultural and Pastoral Association : the committee's report, p. 447-450

Wool scoured and dyed at the Kaiapoi Woollen Factory, 1 November 1887 and Wool report, p. 451-452

Out in the open - a countryman in town, by T.H. Potts, p. 457-461

Vol. 12, no. 1, January 2, 1888

Sheep husbandry, p. 1—7

Out in the open - a countryman in town, by T.H. Potts, p. 15-20

Report on rabbit pest : prepared by joint committee of the Canterbury Chamber of Commerce and the Canterbury Agricultural and Pastoral Association; also related items, p. 21-30

Vol. 12 no. 2, March 2, 1888

Sheep husbandry, p 93-97

Out in the open - a countryman in town, by T.H. Potts, p. 98-102

The rabbit pest - cats as a destroying agency, p. 106-111

The recent epidemic of fowl cholera on the Mount Grey Downs, by W.H. Symes, p.139-145

Vol. 12 no. 3, May 1, 1888

Sheep husbandry, p. 185-190

Out in the open : in the Chathams, by T.H. Potts, p. 193-198

Butter factory for Canterbury, p. 203-210

School of Agriculture, Lincoln W. E. Ivey's report, p. 217-224

The Canterbury Agricultural and Pastoral Association committee report, p. 268-272

Vol. 12 no. 4, July 2, 1888

Sheep husbandry, p. 277-282

School of Agriculture, Lincoln: Report of Director, p. 314-324

Vol. 12 no. 5, September 1, 1888

Out in the open: stock in the Chathams, by T.H. Potts, p. 369-375

T.H. Potts' obituary, opposite p. 369

Sheep husbandry viewed in relation to the export trade in mutton, p. 375-379

Dairy factories, p. 384-395

Canterbury Chamber of Commerce annual meeting, p. 408-410

Alpine and rock plants, by Michael Murphy, p. 434-438

Article about 'a class of exceedingly interesting plants, the culture of which is almost entirely neglected in this part of the world'

Bees - handling bees, p. 445-446

Vol. 12 no. 6, November 1, 1888

Sheep husbandry, p. 459—464

System of farming best adapted for the Kirwee district, paper read by J.T. Ford, p. 467-480

On the systems of crop rotation followed on the College Farm, Lincoln, by W.E. Ivey, p. 483-489

Vol. 13 no. 1, January 1, 1889

Reminiscences of an old colonist, Otago, 1853, p. 11-13

Vol. 13 no. 2, March 1, 1889

The Canterbury Pastoral Lands, p. 91-96

Vol. 13 no. 3, May 1, 1889

The question of prize farms

Concerns proposal to offer prizes for well-managed farms. This matter had been taken in hand by the Canterbury Metropolitan Agricultural and Pastoral Association, p. 181-185

Reminiscences of Otago, p. 188-191

Includes material on sheep farming and appearance of scab in sheep

Prizes for small farms : Canterbury Agricultural and Pastoral Association to offer prizes, p. 235-236

Report of the committee of the Canterbury Agricultural and Pastoral Association, p. 257-261

Vol. 13 no. 4, July 1, 1889

The School of Agriculture [Lincoln College], p. 271-276

The introduction of the humble bee into New Zealand by S.C. Farr, p. 284-287

[S. C. Farr is, in fact, dealing with his involvement in the North Canterbury Acclimatisation Society and the introduction of the humble bee into Canterbury]

Reminiscences of Otago by an old colonist. Deals with privations of men and women working in the hinterland, p. 289-292

A short contribution to the ryegrass controversy, by W. E. Ivey, School of Agriculture, p. 298-302

Cultivation of phormium tenax - native flax, p. 316-318

The flax industry: the experience of an old flax dresser, p. 318-319

A warning to flaxdressers, p. 319

Sporting notes, by Hermi (James Selfe), p. 354-359

There are other sporting notes and articles on race horses by 'Hermit' (James Selfe) in the New Zealand country journal

Vol. 13 no. 5, September 2, 1889

The supply of mutton for export purposes, p. 361-366

Reminiscences of Otago, p. 415-417

Vol. 13 no. 6, November 1, 1889

Permanent pastures and alternative farming, p. 451-456

Canterbury its resources and progress, p. 469-478

Canterbury College and Higher Education, p. 480-482

Primary education, p. 482-483

Canterbury Museum, p. 484

Sport in Canterbury, p. 484-485

Introduction of the humble bee into New Zealand by S.C. Farr, p. 489-493

Coriaria ruscifolia : tutu [a poison to humans, cattle and sheep], by old colonist, p. 500-503

Vol. 14 no. 1, January 1, 1890

Some general remarks on the agricultural position, p. 1-6

Grasses for drifting sand, by William Morgan, p. 6-9

[Relevant in that the control of drifting sand is a subject in Michael Murphy's 1891 'Possibilities of New Brighton']

Vol. 14 no. 2, March 1, 1890

Illustration of 'Sultan', a 'Berkshire boar ... the property of Mr. James Rowe, Windsor Park, Christchurch, New Zealand, winner of 10 first prizes, also winner of the champion cups at Christchurch, Wellington, Dunedin and Ellesmere shows, 1889, facing p. 1
[James Rowe gave his name to Rowe Place, Shirley, Christchurch]

The frozen meat trade, p. 91-96

Reminiscences of an old colonist : coriaria ruscifolia [tutu], p. 135-137 - includes paragraph on Captain William Cargill

Dairy experiment of Mr. R. Withell of Brookside, p. 47-48

H. P. Hill's jersey herd, p. 49 [Henry Philip Hill was a farmer, businessman and prominent figure in the Anglican church]:

Vol. 15 no. 1, January 1, 1891

A glance at the agricultural situation, p. 1-5

Fruit culture: paper read before Greendale Literary Society by T. W. Adams, p. 15-19

In re irrigation: poem by Zara on the Rakaia River, p. 32-33

Begins O Rakaia, O Rakaia

Thou giant of the plain ...

Vol. 15 no. 2, March 2, 1891

Autumn notes, p. 95-99

Out in the open, by T.H. Potts, p. 100-107

Forest-tree planting on the Canterbury Plains, by T.W. Adams, p. 111-117

Humble bees by S.C. Farr, p. 126-128

The rise and fall of a nor-wester, by Zara: poem, p.134-136

The possibilities of New Brighton, by Michael Murphy : paper read before the New Brighton Improvement Society, 5 February 1891, p. 143-153

Vol. 15 no. 3, May 1, 1891

Lessons from the past season, p.189-194

Out in the open, by the late T.H. Potts : recollections by Rambler, p. 194-201

In re irrigation: poem by Zara, 234-235

Report of the committee of the Canterbury Agricultural and Pastoral Association, p. 260-263

Vol. 15 no. 4, July 1, 1891

Fixing the floating population, p. 283-287

Out in the open, by the late T.H. Potts : recollections by Rambler p. 287-295

Forest-tree planting on the Canterbury Plains, by T.W. Adams, Greendale, p. 298-302

Winter - poem by Zara, p. 333-334

Vol. 15 no. 5, September 1, 1891

The supply of sheep for freezing purposes, p. 375-380

Out in the open, by the late T.H. Potts : reminiscences by Rambler, p. 380-388

Forest-tree planting on the Canterbury Plains, by T.W. Adams p. 396-400

Our gardens by Zara, poem, p. 443-444

Vol. 15 no. 6, November 2, 1891

Breeding for profit, p. 469-473

Out in the open, by the late T. H. Potts : recollections by Rambler, p. 474-479

Our home, poem by Zara p. 531-532

Vol. 16 no. 1, January 1, 1892

Notes for wool-growers, p. 1-6

Out in the open, by late T.H. Potts, p. 7-14

Our frozen mutton, p. 14-18

The New Year, poetry by Zara, p. 30

New machinery exhibited at the recent Christchurch Show, p. 92-95:

seed cleaning machinery - Andrews and Beaven

horse gear - Morrow, Bassett and Co

windmill - Booth and McDonald

spading harrow - Booth and McDonald

Vol. 16 no. 2, March 1, 1892

The aspect of the frozen mutton trade, p.97-102

Out in the open by the late Thomas Henry Potts : recollections by Rambler, p. 103-110

Aquaculture or fish farming, by S.C. Farr, p 110-114

Maggots in sheep, by T.W. Adams, p. 138-139

The harvest storm - poetry by Zara, p. 158-159

Vol. 16 no. 3, May 2, 1892

The all absorbing topic again [frozen mutton trade], p. 193-197

On the burial of a favourite horse, poem by Zara, p. 234

Apples for export and apples for home use, by T.W. Adams, p. 235-239

Canterbury Agricultural and Pastoral Association annual report, p. 281-287

Vol. 16 no. 4, July 1, 1892

Agricultural economy, p. 289-293

Agricultural Conference : report of the conference of delegates from agricultural societies throughout New Zealand, p. 294-342

Rooks and starlings, by S C. Farr, p. 350-354

A plea of despair, by John Matson, Springfield, St. Albans, p. 358-359; Sir George Grey's response, p. 360

Poem about mass killing of wild animals and birds:

For example:

Search where, in thundering squadrons, the bison was found

Never again on the prairie his hoof shall resound

Insectivorous birds, by S.C. Farr, letter to editor, p. 371-373

Vol. 16 no. 5, September 1, 1892

Sheep, by Professor John Scott, p. 385-392

Southdown ewes - picture drawn by F. Babbage - sheep imported from the Sandringham flock of H.R. H. the Prince of Wales by John Deans, Riccarton, Canterbury

Fresh importations, p. 417

Southdown sheep selected for John Deans by his relative, Mr. J. A. McIlraith, and sent out on ship Doric

The dairy industry in Canterbury, p. 418-427

The song of cycle wheels, poem by Zara, p. 464-465

Vol. 16 no. 6, 1 November 1892

Fat lambs for freezing, p. 481-485

Government Expert's report on the Tai Tapu Dairy Factory, by Newman Anderson, p. 546-548

Imported sheep, p. 548-549

Southdown sheep sent by ex-Governor Onslow to breeder, S. Garforth, Spreydon

Vol. 17 no. 1, January 2, 1893

Considerations for sheep-farmers, p. 1-5

Vol. 17 no. 2, March 1, 1893

Autumn notes, p. 95-99

The Sunnyside Asylum Farm, p. 150-153

Vol. 17 no. 3, May 1, 1893

Thorough tillage, p. 189-193

Vol. 17 no. 4, July 1, 1893

The pastoral industry, p. 283-288

The Canterbury Central Dairy Factory : opening of the Addington factory, p. 335-337

Imported stud shorthorn bull for the Riccarton herd : Lord Russell 9th, p. 351-353

The pastoral industry, p. 377-382

Vol. 17 no. 5, September 1, 1893

The best farm in the world ... Longbeach near Ashburton, p. 387-396

The dairy : the Central Dairy Factory, Addington, Christchurch, p. 432-433; the Tai Tapu Dairy Factory, p. 433-434

Vol. 17 no. 6, November 1, 1893

The pastoral industry, p. 471-475

Vol. 18, no. 1, January 1, 1894

The pastoral industry, p. 1-6

Dairy cattle, their breeds, feeding and management, p. 15-25

Vol. 18 no. 2, March 1, 1894

The pastoral industry, p. 93-97

Canterbury Agricultural and Pastoral Association : report of the Committee for the year ending 31 March 1894, p. 169-175

Vol. 18 no. 3, May 1, 1894

The pastoral industry, p 185-189

Vol. 18 no. 4, July 2, 1894

The Agricultural Conference, p. 277-282

Vol. 18 no. 5, September 1, 1894

The pastoral industry, p. 369-373

Vol. 18 no. 6, November 1, 1894

The pastoral industry, p. 461-465

Vol. 19 no. 1, January 1, 1895

Agricultural depression, p. 1-5

Vol. 19 no. 2, March 1, 1895

Grain growing in relation to mutton production, p. 13-117

The Cheviot Estate : the lessons it teaches, p. 126-131

The Cheviot Estate was bought from the Robinson family and broken up so that small farmers might settle there

Vol. 19 no. 4, July 1, 1895

A ray of hope : rise in the price of wheat, p. 313-317

Lincoln Agricultural College - special report, p. 349-352

Vol. 19 no. 5, September 2, 1895

Lessons from the last winter, p. 409-414

The flax industry : report of the Parliamentary Committee, p. 415-419

Vol. 19 no. 6, November 1, 1895

The frozen mutton industry, p. 509-514

The fertilization of flowers : lecture delivered under the auspices of the Philosophical Institute of Canterbury by the President, Professor Arthur Dendy D.Sc., F.L.S., 11 September 1895, p. 567-589

Vol. 20 no. 2, March 2, 1896

Report of the committee of the Canterbury Agricultural and Pastoral Association, p. 191-198

Vol. 20 no. 3, May 1, 1896

The pastoral industry, p. 209-214
Deals with frozen meat trade

Vol. 20 no. 4, July 1, 1896

The noxious plant question, p. 309-314

Rotation of crops, by J. Bayne, Director, Lincoln College, p. 331-338

The dairy, by J.B. McEwan, Chief Dairy Instructor, p. 373-379

Vol. 20 no. 5, September 1, 1896

The dairy industry, p. 409-41

The fortunate isles : picturesque New Zealand, by William P. Reeves, Agent-General, p. 414-437

Fruit for farmers' families : what to grow; how to grow it; and where to store it, by T.W. Adams, Greendale, p. 474-478

Vol. 20 no. 6, November 2, 1896

The pastoral industry, p. 509-513

Report on the agricultural experiments carried out at Lincoln College by J. Bayne, Director, p. 1-5

Vol. 21 no. 1, January 1, 1897

School of Agriculture (Lincoln College, later University), p. 1-6
Struggle for British markets

Export of Australian and New Zealand dairy products, p. 34-36

Vol. 21 no. 2, March 1897

The pastoral industry, p. 105-109

Vol. 21 no. 3, May 1897

The pastoral industry, p. 201-205

Vol. 21 no. 4, July 1897

The agricultural and pastoral industries, p. 297-302

Planting trees for shelter in New Zealand, by T.W. Adams, Greendale, p. 803-809

Vol. 21 no. 6, November 1897

The exportation of lambs, p. 491-495

Vol. 22 no. 2, March 1, 1898

Irrigation.

'The question of irrigation on the Canterbury Plains is one which crops up ... with the recurrence of dry seasons'. p.135-140

Vol. 22 no. 4, July 1, 1898

The pastoral industry, p. 331-336

Progress of agriculture in Canterbury, by T.W. Adams (historical article), p. 352-357

Vol. 22 no. 5, September 1, 1898

The Agricultural Conference, p. 429-434

Planting for shelter, by Sir John Hall, p. 455-462

The small bird nuisance, p. 495-497

Vol. 22 no. 6, November 1, 1898

Agricultural and pastoral shows : their educative value, p. 527-532

List of trees and shrubs growing at Greendale, by T.W. Adams, p. 583-592